The Editor's column

by S. R. PADDOCK

We call this a modern civilization, but in the easy living provided by modern inventions, have we lost the strength of character and fortitude of the early settlers?

Are we not depending too much on society to do the things that need doing in our civic and family life?

Many of us find it so easy to complain about taxes, fund drives, split school sessions and juvenile delinquency, that we are too tired to do anything about it.

Tomorrow night a group of men and women will decide on the life or death of the Community Chest. Unless a dose of penicillin or mycin is injected in its veins, the chest will die.

As a church-going community, the new churches and additions to church buildings are proof that individual church groups are ready and willing to dig deep into their pockets for religious purposes.

As a community, Arlington Heights should be willing to give similar support to its local youth projects—the Boy Scouts, Cub Scouts, Girl Scouts and Little League. It should not be necessary to have each of these groups go from door to door for a yearly "hand-out."

One fund raising campaign for all local agencies could do the trick if "you and I" have matured sufficiently to meet the responsibilities we owe to our young people.

This column is serving as a "private eye" this week. In some basement or garage in the Mount Prospect area there is a lawn roller that its possessor has forgotten to return to the Busse-Biermann store.

We suggest that the wives join the investigating squad. If in some unknown way that lawn roller is on your premises, telephone the firm. They will say "thank you" and promise to ask no questions of Friend Husband, who is just forgetful.

We know of an off-street parking lot that is ripe for the "picking" if Arlington Heights is in earnest about acquiring such property. The price is right.

The village board and the businessmen should stop playing "hide and seek" with each other. The shoppers are doing that on week ends when they hunt for places to park.

We were asked this week if the voters of Arlington Heights would approve a general bond issue for purchase of off street parking areas. There is an easy way to find out. Try it.

Village officials may consider such a bond issue as too hot a potato for them to handle so why do not the business interests circulate the petition asking that an election be called? They have nothing to lose and everything to gain.

There is new proof that it is dangerous to play with fire when the fuel is games of skill. Lee Daniels of DuPage county, a personal friend of the editor, has had his reputation "burned" because an attempt was made to place on the market a "skill" slot machine.

It was not many months ago that an attempt was made in Palatine to have its village board license some such machine. It was actually installed for a few days in two of the taverns. The village officially and wisely said "no."

We recall the fire that was started by this paper 30 years ago when the "man with the white hat" was operating in this area.

Every skill, contrivance, punch board or slot machine is dangerous to the reputation of public officials. Today the Chicago "hoods" know that the villages in this area are "off limits" to their kind.

We do not want any other person to be blamed for anything in this column. The comment in last week's column about "baking out" the recreation rooms after the spring floods, was a side remark of the editor—nobody else.

We are glad that our staff photographer got away on his vacation before he learned how near he came to being shot as a suspected bandit last week. He fortunately gave up the chase before the young lady in the car he was pursuing had the opportunity to spot a squad car. We would surely have missed that photographer.

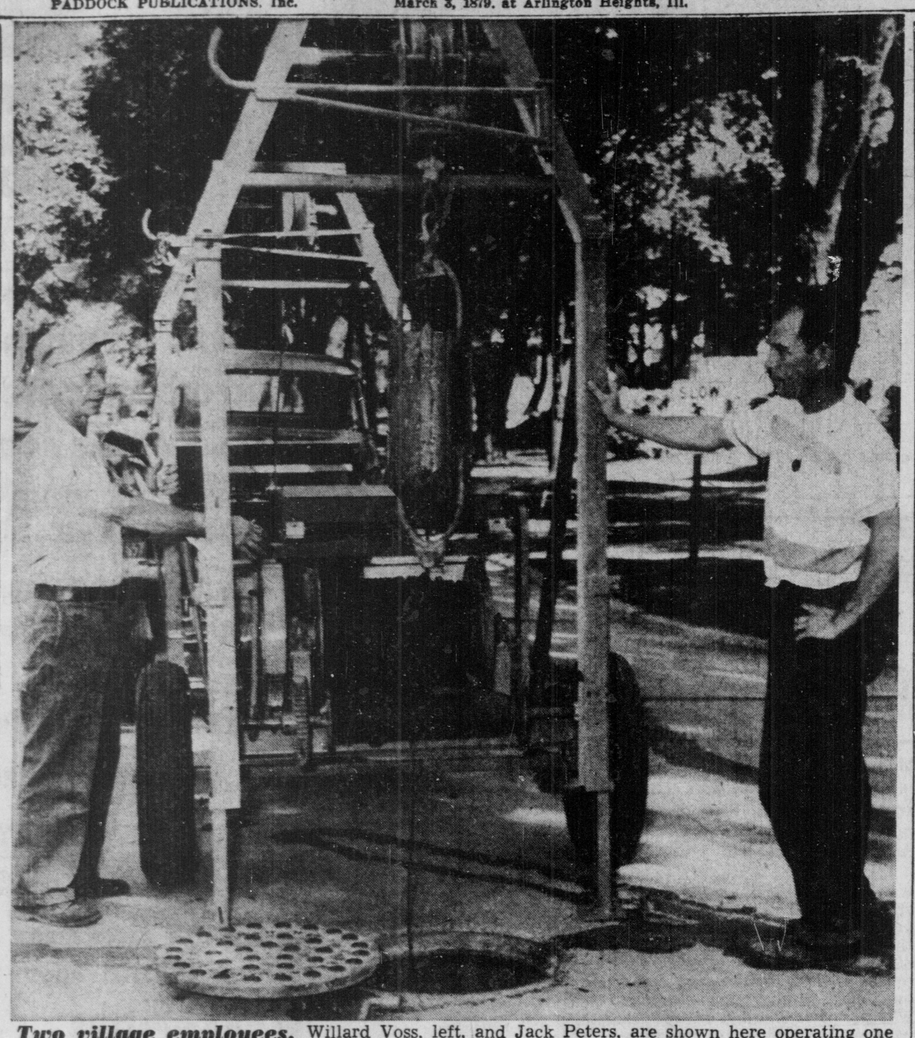
A local Democratic chieftain takes issue with the statement in this column last week that pure air makes Republicans out of Democrats who move out from the contaminated Chicago air.

He asks if it was the pure air of the state of Maine that caused otherwise Republicans to elect a Democratic governor.



Two village employees, Willard Voss, left, and Jack Peters, are shown here operating one of the new bucketing machines purchased by the village of Arlington Heights. The machine is part of the new unit that is expected to eliminate high sewer cleaning expenditures. Sewers and drains can now be cleaned regularly on a systematic basis before damage is done to the village sewer system. —Staff Photo.

Park-O-Meter Company Awarded Bid for Meters

Final approval to install parking meters in Arlington Heights was given at the village board meeting Tuesday night, following a lengthy report from the parking committee clarifying and expanding on its recommendation concerning the adoption of parking meters for the village.

Various types of automatic meters were discussed, and after exhaustive details were obtained from neighboring cities, and examinations of the meters themselves completed, the committee decided that the McGee-Hale Park-O-Meter was the best meter for the money, although not the cheapest. This decision was based, as the committee felt it should be, on what value was to be received for the dollars spent, and not just the net number of dollars involved.

THE COMMITTEE stated, "If dollars and not dependability and quality were the criterion for most purchases, many times each of us would find ourselves in the position of not having made the most economical purchase."

It felt this same thinking should be applied to village purchases. There are 19 cities in this area, including Evanston, which use this particular meter.

The Park-O-Meter bid was accepted with the stipulation the village could fill in the exact amount of meters needed when the final count was made of on-street parking spaces. The board has not been able to obtain a commitment from the Chicago and North Western railroad to meter the railroad parking lots, so at this time it is not possible to order meters for these lots.

ONLY OBJECTOR to the motion approving the parking meters was Trustee Charles Rehfeldt. He pointed out that in his opinion it would take at least six extra men to check the meters, collecting and counting the money, winding the meters, and keeping them in repair. He cited several instances in other towns where the automatic meters froze in the winter, causing a loss in revenue.

The rest of the board felt they had weighed the matter thoroughly, and certainly realized there would be some expense involved in the upkeep of the meters, but felt such additional expense would be paid out of the meter revenue and not out of the money appropriated to run the village.

Kiwanians To Sponsor 'Kids' Day Friday, Sept. 24

Local Kiwanians and their wives will be on the streets Friday, September 24, selling bag's of Kids' Day peanuts to raise funds to expand and further their work in Youth Activities for the children of the community.

It is in celebration of Kids' Day, sponsored by Kiwanis International, Friday and Saturday in Arlington Heights and in hundreds of other communities.

Plans for local activity have been formulated by a committee with D. J. Kennedy as chairman and Casey Gordon, Edward Hennessy and Harold Weiss.

Mr. Pailey president of Arlington Kiwanians pointed out that youth work has been a major aim of Kiwanis International throughout the thirty-nine years of its existence. The Kids' Day program, one of Kiwanis' major activities for youth, focuses attention on this important work of the organization on one day, and permits each club to develop a local program best suited to its community while integrating it with the club's year-round program for youth.

Last year over a million two hundred thousand children were entertained on Kids' Day and Kiwanis clubs raised more than $800,000 for their youth service work. Mr. Pailey stressed that these funds are retained in the communities where they are collected and used entirely in local youth projects. He pointed out the Kiwanis club's sending representative to Boy's State, support or Little League, Brookfield Zoo outing for orphans, Patrol Boys ball game, donation to Christmas party for children, etc., show how Kiwanis uses locally collected funds to benefit the entire community.

Dr. Kennedy, Chairman of the Kids' Day committee, urged all citizens to whole-heartedly support Kids' Day in this first undertaking of the activity by the Kiwanis club of Arlington Heights, and join with other civic-minded residents of the area in observing this day set aside especially for helping youth.

Writers Confess How They Manufacture Crime And Romance Stories

What kind of people write your favorite mystery stories? Are they eccentrics, or just like the folks next door?

In order to find the answer, a Paddock reporter invaded a recent meeting of the Mystery Writers of America.

His story includes an exclusive interview with the British Consul, who reveals some inside "dope" about the Royal Family; a behind-the-scenes look at "true confession" stories; and an explanation of how mystery writers find their plots.

Nine Polio Cases Reported In Area

Seven cases of polio have been reported in Arlington Heights since August 14, according to information received from the office of Dr. John Hall, director of the Cook County Health department.

There have been three cases reported in Palatine since the opening of the current polio season, two in Mount Prospect, one of which resulted in death of a young boy, and one in Prospect Meadows.

Latest Arlington Heights victim is Katleen Coffey, 7, of 414 E. Rockwell. She is being treated at Evanston hospital for non-paralytic polio. Muriel Hofer, 25, of 913 N. Douglas, contracted non-paralytic polio September 10, and is also confined to Evanston hospital. Barbraa Geddes, 4, of 616 Mayfair, became ill September 5, and was taken to Evanston hospital for treatment.

Other cases in Arlington include Joan Locascio, 22, of 921 Salem, spinal polio, and Janice Sitarz, 5, 607 Frederick, spinal polio, both of whom are in Evanston hospital. The other two victims are Russell Brown, 7, of 608 E. Oakton, who is suffering from bulbar and encephalitic polio, and Judith Johns, 8 , of 1017 N. Douglas, spinal polio, both of whom are in St. Joseph hospital, Elgin.

The Prospect Meadows patient is Richard Le'Brun, six months old, of 444 Bob-o-Link, who is in Evanston hospital with spinal polio.

John Jordan, 28, of 165 S. Chicago, Palatine, became ill with spinal polio September 1, and is being treated at Evanston hospital.

Has Rolling Meadows An Aladdin's Lamp?

Rolling Meadows is growing so fast that Arlington Heights people are beginning to wonder if Kimball Hill has an Aladdin Lamp that he rubs every night.

Approximately 600 homes have been completed so far with future building to call for 90 to 100 homes a month for the next six months.

Campbell st. has been continued through to Rohlwing rd., and on Wilke rd. alone there are 42 new homes completed with another 10 to 15 planned for the near future, Hill said.

The community's unprecedented "boom" accounts for its present population of 600 families.

Hill added that there still are some homes available for fall delivery.

South Side Paper Pickup Saturday

Boy Scouts of Arlington Heights are truly sorry for any inconvenience caused south side residents who put their paper on the curb last Saturday morning. The schedule of pickups, as set forth in last week's Herald, was incorrect and was not put in by anyone connected with this project.

The Scouts are hoping that all of last week's bundles, plus many more, will be on the curb this Saturday morning, September 25, when the south side pickup will be made.

Hand-bills are being distributed this week by Cub Scouts to every home in the area bounded by Northwest Highway, Wilke, Central and Dryden. Similar handbills were distributed last week on the northside. These circulars set forth the complete schedule of pick-ups for a full year.

Since pickups are being made on a regular bi-monthly schedule, it is urged that papers and magazines be saved for local Scouts. Residents in out-lying areas may bring their tied bundles to the South school grounds any time Saturday morning. Special handling can be arranged by calling CLearbrook 3-4224.

High School Committee To Give Report Tonight

Decide Fate Of Community Chest Drive Friday Night

The Arlington Heights Community Chest will either "do or die" Friday night. That's the prediction of those close to the group's executive committee.

Weir Swanson, Community Chest president, has appealed to all members of the board of directors to be present at a meeting to be held in the Junior high school Friday from 7:30 to 8 p.m.

Swanson's invitation is also extended to Community Chest association members (anyone who contributed to the 1953-54 fund drive) who are interested in expressing an opinion as to the future course of action for the local organization.

"You are urged to come to the meeting prepared to either actively support the continuation of the activity," Swanson said, "or to recommend discontinuance effective this year.

"If sufficient interest is indicated, the meeting could be used as an organizational meeting at which a campaign fund drive committee could be appointed to immediately get under way with the 1954-55 campaign.

"OTHERWISE, it will be necessary to recognize that there is not sufficient interest for the 1954-55 drive and to notify the agencies that are still looking to the Community Chest for funds to make plans for their own campaigns."

Special invitations have gone to the Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Little League, major benefactors of the fund drive, to send representatives to the meeting. The Lions club, whose Youth Center Project also receives Community Chest funds, the Woman's club and the Chamber of Commerce have also been asked to send representatives.

Members of the Arlington Heights Community Chest board of directors include Swanson, Robert Bishop, Q. K. Ford, C. Richard Kriebel, N. M. Lattof, Dr. L. L. Linn, Mrs. George Tuttle, Forrest Davis, Arthur Franzen, William A. Gerbosi, Mrs. C. A. Hendrickson, Henry Hutten, Albert C. Peters.

Six of the 20 directorships have been vacant due to the expiration of terms for the one-year directors. One director has moved from the community.

RECENT attempts to call meetings of the Chest board of directors have met with little success. Since a quorum of directors has not been present at any called meeting since early last spring, official business of the Chest has been at a standstill.

The local Chest organization was established in 1952 and surpassed its 1952-53 fund drive goal of $16,000 by more than $3,000. Last year's fund drive to raise slightly over $21,000 fell almost $9,000 short of its mark. The net deficit, with the aid of the previous year's surplus was just under $6,000.

At least one of the 12 agencies covered in last year's Community Chest appeal has indicated that it would just as soon not be included in any united fund raising drive here this year. Another has already indicated that it is prepared to go ahead with a separate drive. Presumably others would follow suit.

All those interested in the future of the Arlington Heights Community Chest are urged to attend the Friday evening meeting.

Faith Church To Observe Fifth Anniversary

The fifth anniversary of the dedication of its church will be observed by Faith Lutheran church in two impressive services Sunday, September 26th. In services at 10:45 a.m. and 4:00 p. m. it will recount its many blessings and offer thanks with a grateful heart.

The sermon in the 10:45 a.m. service will be delivered by the Rev. Edgar H. Behrens, Pastor of Faith church, and in the 4:00 p.m. Vesper the Dr. James G. Manz, Pastor of First St. Paul's church, Chicago, and son of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Manz of Arlington Heights will be the guest speaker.

The choirs of Faith church will render anthems of thanksgiving. Immediately following the Vespers, the ladies of Faith church will serve a light supper in the parish hall.

Faith church extends a hearty welcome to everyone and a cordial invitation to join in this anniversary celebration. The church is a member of the English District of the Lutheran church — Missouri Synod.

Five years ago Faith church numbered 500 souls — today that number exceeds 1100. During the same period the Sunday school has grown from 175 to more than 500.

The large Sunday school enrollment made it necessary to expand the facilities and so today Faith also rejoices in the completion of its fine large parsonage on church property, the basement and study of which will be used for Sunday school purposes.

Recently, two additional lots south of the church on Pine ave. were purchased. These will make it possible to increase the parking area and thus relieve some of the congestion on State rd.

The interior of the church has been redecorated throughout and an asphalt tile floor installed in the parish hall.

ARLINGTON POLLING PRECINCTS NEXT WEEK

As a community service next week's issue will contain a map showing precinct boundaries and polling places in that portion of Wheeling township within the corporate limits of Arlington Heights and Mount Prospect. Registration October 3.

Doctor Pleads Case for Medical Building in Heights

The fate of a proposed medical and dental building to be erected on the southwest corner of Park st. and State rd., Arlington Heights, was still undecided after Tuesday night's village board meeting.

The property in question must be rezoned from residential to commercial to permit the erection of the building. A report from the zoining board of appeals, which held a hearing on the matter Septmber 9, recommended to the village board that the request to allow the variation in zoning be disallowed. The zoning board based its decision upon the fact adjacent property owners had brought forth sound reasons for objecting to the variation and the fact that three times previously the petition to rezone had been denied.

HOWEVER, Dr. Fred Ahlers, who petitioned for the rezoning, further pleaded his case before the village board. He said professional buildings are not classed as commercial, and this particular building he plans to erect has been put up in residential areas throughout the country.

In his opinion it could not possibly decrease property values inasmuch as the building would cost as much, in most instances, more, than the homes existing in the area. He showed a picture of the one story building, which was modern in design and resembled the ranch homes being built today.

The objectors stated such a business would create a traffic and health problem in the area, which the doctor believed could not be possible with the building being used solely for professional purposes. He said the grounds would be nicely landscaped and the parking area would naturally be kept clean and neat. He was willing to have a clause written in the deed stating the building would be used for professional purposes for a 10 or 20 year period, whatever the village would require.

SINCE THE hearing Dr. Ahlers has contacted some of the objectors who signed the petition, who, after being advised of the type business going in the area, are willing to withdraw their objections. They said they had been misinformed about what the property was being rezoned for.

The doctor also pointed out that in the other requests for rezoning the petitioners desired to use the property for a delicatessen and a dairy store, which he felt would have been an encroachment on the rights of adjacent properties.

In view of these facts, the village board recommended that Dr. Ahlers contact all the property owners in the area and present his case directly to them. Then, if there seems to be a general change of feeling, he should again come before the board, which in turn will refer the matter back to the zoning board of appeals for a rehearing.

A SECOND recommendation by the zoning board of appeals to deny the rezoning of Lots 29, 30 and 31 in the Arlingdale subdivision from a residential classification to commercial, was concurred upon by the village board.

Objectors to the rezoning felt the establishment of a business enterprise on the property would create a traffic problem in the subdivision. Another objector felt that if this property were rezoned it would open the possibility of extending the commercial area all along the railroad tracks.

Visitors to Trude Home Swell Youth Fund

Visitors to the Trude model home at Highland ave. and Kirchhoff rd. are impressed with the enthusiastic welcome they're receiving from Arlington Heights youngsters serving as guides.

The boys and girls have a reason for their enthusiasm—they are the recipients of the ten cents admission fee charged for visitors to the Better Homes and Gardens home.

Already, several large deposits have been made for the fund to be turned over to Arlington Heights youth groups, including the Boy Scouts, Cub Scouts, Girl Scouts and Brownies.

The youngsters feel that ten cents is little to pay for the opportunity to tour the luxurious $40,000 dream house constructed by Trude Land Development Co. and decorated by Carson Pirie Scott & Co.

The home is open daily except Monday from 2 p.m. to 8 p.m.

Estimates of Pupil Load Are Conservative, Says Committee

The Citizens Lay Advisory committee meets tonight (Thursday) in the high school cafeteria to hear a final report from the committee on expansion of present facilities and further reports from the committees considering finances and possible construction of a new building.

The Citizens Committee is pressing toward a set of basic recommendation by October 15. In a letter to the committee, President Elmer F. Laurin of the Board of Education outlined the many steps that must precede actual start of any building construction and indicated that if needed classroom space were to be ready by September, 1956, the commitee's recommendations should be forthcoming by October 1.

Paddock Publications is presenting this week the final report of the enrollment committee which has been studying the enrollment conditions facing the high school.

IN A REPORT approved at the last general meeting, the committee assigned to study shift or modified shift systems reported that it could "find no basis on which to recommend any degree of a modified shift or double shift system as a permanent solution to the growing enrollment problem."

The enrollment committee's report, accepted by the full Citizens Commitete as a basis on which to consider expansion of facilities, estimates that if growth continues at the rate of the past four years, there will be 1,952 students by the spring of 1956, 3,284 by 1958 and 4,179 by the spring of 1959.

The enrollment was 1,497 last Friday.

The enrollment committee said it "strongly feels" that the estimates (given in full in the summary of Chart 2 below) are conservative, and explained why it came to that conclusion.

"It seems obvious that we are faced with an acute case of growing pains in any way the problem is approached," the committee report concluded. "Our natural affinity for the status quo will have to be abandoned, and instead good old American ingenuity used."

THE STUDY showed that the age group in the fifth grade in the spring of 1954 had increased an average of 11.9% per year, the sixth grade group had increased 10.2% annually, seventh grade 13.4%, eighth grade 9.2%, ninth grade 8%, 10th grade 8.8%, 11th grade 7.3% and the 1954 graduating class 5.4%. (Averages of grades 6 through 12 based on past four years; average of fifth grade age group based on three-year period).

The charts show revealing contrasts. For instance, last spring there were 290 high school seniors, but there were 421 eighth graders and 950 first graders.

Here is a summary of charts in the report (all figures based on spring enrollments):

Methodists 'Over The Top' In Fund Drive

Members of the Arlington Hts. Methodist church wore victorious smiles Sunday afternoon when they broke the thermometer in their $150,000 "Forward in Faith" fund campaign.

THE GOAL was reached in less than two weeks after the kick-off dinner, which was held September 7. The intensive fund raising campaign was headed by Arthur N. Trever, who was assisted by 16 teams of four couples each, and a special gifts committee. A total of 430 pledges were made, totaling $151,223. Pledges were made on a 36 month basis.

The money will be used to begin the erection of a new church and Sunday school on east Euclid, about a mile east of State rd. The first phase of the building program will include the Sunday school units and fellowship hall. Rev. Birger Dahl is pastor of the church.

Arlington Man Is Seriously Injured In Truck Accident

A 39-year-old Arlington Hts. man is in critical condition at Alexian Brothers hospital, Belden and Racine aves., Chicago, following a tragic accident Sept. 13.

Sam Rudolpho, 1104 S. Vail ave., a truck driver, was repairing a tractor-truck in Chicago, when he fell off the running board and slipped under the wheels. The driver, unaware of the fall, drove his truck twice over the pinned man.

He will be unable to work for an indefinite period.

The father of four daughters, Rudolpho is now receiving temporary aid from the union while his wife continues to work nights at Motorola co.

Surgeons were to operate on Rudolpho's hip and pelvis bone Tuesday at 7 a. m.

This Week with PJA

Parents and teachers had an opportunity to get acquainted at the regular September meetings held this week at the various Arlington Hts. schools. All agreed that the new policy of holding individual meetings at each school provided opportunity for closer cooperation between parents and teachers and a better chance to discuss problems peculiar to each school. Everyone is looking forward to the October parents' nights, and the outstanding programs scheduled for the following months.

Check Bicycles Now!

Annual fall bicycle inspection offered by the Parent-Teacher association, with the cooperation of Arlington Heights police department, will be conducted next week, beginning Monday. Parents should make sure over the weekend that their child's bicycle is equipped with properly functioning wheels, good brakes, a signal of some kind (either horn or bell), a good headlight and rear reflector if the child will be riding after dark.

Sgt. Oscar Johnson will inspect bicycles and mothers of the PTA will supply reflective tape to safeguard riders. The inspection schedule is as follows:

Ridge school: Morning session, 8:30 a.m., September 27. Afternoon session, 1 p.m., September 27.

South school: Morning session, 10 a.m., September 27. Afternoon session, 3 p.m., September 27.

Dryden school: Tuesday morning, September 28.

North school: Wednesday morning, September 29.

Junior high school: Tuesday afternoon, September 28.

Last Call

If you missed signing up for the Round Robin bridge at your PTA meeting, you may still be able to participate by calling Mrs. Raymond Driscoll at CL. 3-5314. Registration has been heavy, Mrs. Driscoll reports, but there are still a few openings if you call before the end of this week. The charge is 50 cents for registration and 50 cents per month for each person.

Membership Drive October 4-8

The week of October 4-8 has been set for the annual PTA membership drive. School children will be given applications to take home September 30. Mothers are asked to watch for these applications and be sure to fill it out and send it back with the child the following Monday. Anyone who does not have a child of school age is cerdially invited to join the membership, and may do so by calling Mrs. Charles McNary at CL. 3-4450. A number of outstanding speakers have been engaged for the monthly programs ahead.

Adult Talent Needed

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hawley, who are in charge of the talent show to be given in February, again urge parents to look into their "bag of tricks" in search of one that can be used in the production. No matter how small you may think your talent is, whether it is singing, acting, acrobatics, impersonations, or what-have-you, it may be just what is needed. Don't be modest — call Mr. and Mrs. Hawley at CL. 3-5017, so that tryouts may be held and rehearsals begun as soon as possible.

District Conference To Be Held Here

The thirty-third annual conference of District 21 of the Illinois Congress of Parents and Teachers will be held this year in Arlington Heights October 14, at St. Peter Lutheran school, 325 N. Highland. Registration will begin at 9:30 a.m., and the meeting will last from 10 a.m. to 3:30 p.m., with lunch served to those who have made reservations. Since this is the first time a district conference has been held in this community, it is expected that a number of people from Arlington Heights will wish to attend. More details will be given next week.

Correction

The boot and skate exchange, listed last week for October 4, 5, and 6 will take place instead November 4, 5, and 6.

Newspaper Photographer Mistaken for a Bandit

A staff photographer of Paddock Publication was mistaken for a highway bandit last week in a wild, high speed auto chase

A woman driving a flashy blue convertible just missed hitting the photographer's car between Mount Prospect and Arlington. He set out after the offender, chasing her at 70 mph through Arlington and hitting 100 mph at the race track. He abandoned the chase when she drove into a gas station.

This week the "reckless" driver, reading of the chase in the Editor's column, phoned Paddock Publications to explain that she thought the photo grapher was a bandit chasing her for the bank deposits she'd been carrying. She became terrified when she noted the speeding car following her, and jammed the gas pedal in order to streak to safety.

Historical Booth May Bring Organization Of Historical Society

The number of historical written, printed and photographed exhibits identified with the early history of Elk Grove and Wheeling township displayed at the Arlington Heights Antique Show this week, may give added impetus to the organization of an Elk Grove-Wheeling Historical society.

Persons visiting the booth in St. John church, have the opportunity to sign a register as being interested in the formation of such a society. The immediate purpose is to collect old records, catalogue them, place them in steel files which are to be stored in Arlington Heights public library.

While many of the items on display this week are family heirlooms the organization of the historical society would give the interested families the opportunity to place them in a safe place for future preservation.

All of the historical mementoes are not manuscripts. A young child's bed on which Geo. K. Volz slept when two years old has attracted special attention. It was made by his father, Christian Volz, 72 years ago. (A Want Better Publicity?

Publicity chairmen for clubs and organizations were urged this week to enroll in a special four-week newspaper writing course.

The suggestion came from Marianne Scott, society editor of Paddock Publications, who said it would enable groups to have better, more readable publicity.

The course is being offered at Maine township high school adult evening school and will be taught by Robert R. Trotter, columnist and editor of the Edison-Norwood Review. The course will answer the question: "What is news and how should news releases be prepared to be acceptable to editors?"

Registration for the class is $2. It begins October 4 and registration is September 27 to 30 from 7 to 9 p.m. in the school cafeteria.

Here's Scouting

With Explorer Scout Bill Hogate

Northwest Suburban Council Annual Barb-B-Q Deemed Big Success

Last Saturday from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m., scouts, scouters and parents kept Camp Baden Powell in an active whirl at the annual Barb-B-Q. Wandering around the grounds of camp Baden Powell, the visitors and the scouters saw much skill demonstrated in various displays, and set-ups portraying phases of scouting, put on by Scouts in this area. Two displays in particular caught the eye of this reporter; one was troop chuck wagon, displayed by Troop 15 of Skokie; the other films showing highlights of Napowan, Philmont and Schiff. Tom Cinquania, scoutmaster of Troop 15, explained that the chuck wagon had been built for Troop 15 by Walt Durbahn, originator of "Walt's Workshop" on TV. By the way, "Walt's Workshop" is on TV every Friday at 7:30 p.m. Mr. Cinquania stated also that plans are available for this chuck wagon at any "Hines lumber yard."

The movies were shown by Garry Young of Mount Prospect.

A final round-up campfire ended the program. District commissioner Raymond Woodruff, of the Blackhawk district, walking off with the 1954 Barb-B-Q attendance trophy.

Paper Drive Error

It was brought to the attention of Here's Scouting that an error was printed in last week's paper concerning the paper pick-up-drive. The paper was not collected on the South side as stated. The editors of Here's Scouting would like it known that the Scouts in this area did not make the error but that the information received at this desk was in error. Larry Austin has informed us that scouts will pass out slips of paper with the dates of future paper pickups to all the homes in Arlington Heights sometime in the near future.

Explorers See Wildcats Vs. Iowa Saturday

Explorers in this area will be guests of Northwestern university at the Northwestern-Iowa State football game, September 25, at Dyke Stadium, Evanston. All Scouts are reminded that they should ask their Explorer Advisors about this game at their next meeting. It is imperative that this be done as the number that may attend in this Council is limited!

Second Fisheree Sucess

Last Saturday Troop 7 — 27 boy scouts, 11 explorers and 10 adults, held their 2nd annual fisheree at Raleigh and Jo's Resort, Twin Lakes, Wis. Scoutmaster Herb Smith stated that fishing was poor; however, all had enjoyed the overnight.

We're not sure who caught the largest fish, but as the story goes, Jim Plambeck, Post member, coped the "largest fish that got away" trophy. Congratulations Jim!

Leaders Note

As the scouting program is quickly resuming its regular pace and activities of various troops are booming madly, the editors of "Here's Scouting" would again like to remind unit leaders in the Blackhawk district that any Scout information submitted by scout leaders will be published.

All of us here on the "Here's Scouting" staff really appreciate it any time a unit leader calls us up and supplies us with some scouting news. Just call Bill Hogate, CL. 3-0219 any time.

The general public is cordially invited to the Troop 53 annual pancake supper, at which Will predicts, at least 500 will attend. Details, not yet revealed, will appear in forthcoming editions of the local paper.

His teams have won the indoor Mid-west Invitational five times since 1947, and hold trophies from the Loyola iate State championship, Central A.A.U., and others. Wheaton teams are run each year in the Chicago Daily News relays where Dodds is an official and narrates the Banker's Mile race which is broadcast around the world. Dodds still holds the record for this race.

Dubbed the "Flying Parson" and "King of the Milers" by newsmen who respected both his athletic achievements and his religious earnestness, Dodds climaxed a brilliant track career in 1948 when he flashed to a new record for the indoor mile at the Millrose games in New York city's Madison Square Garden. He covered the distance in four minutes, five and three-tenths seconds. Highlights of Dodds running career were the winning of the Sullivan award in 1943, presented to the amateur athlete who had done the most to advance the cause of sportsmanship during the year, and in 1947 receiving the annual track writer's trophy for outstanding contribution to the sport. Dodds average all-time record for eight years of Big Time competition is slightly under 4.10. He ran more races under 4.10 than any other miler, and won 30 races out of 37 in big time running.

Dodds is an ordained pastor and a graduate of Ashland college. He earned his bachelor of divinity degree from Gordon seminary, Boston, and his master's from Wheaton college.

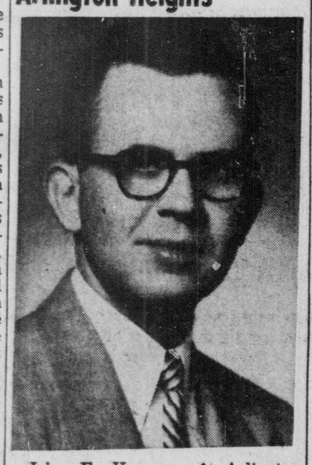
Opens Office In Arlington Heights



John F. Hoover of Arlington Heights has established a law practice by opening offices at 11 N. State road in Arlington Heights. Mr. Hoover is a partner in the Chicago loop firm of Hoover & Scheele.

Mr. Hoover has devoted most of his practice to work in real estate, trusts and probate, since his admission to the Illinois Bar and expects to direct his attention largely to these fields in his practice here. Presbyterians To Mark Christian Education Sunday

Presbyterian church school of Arlington Heights is preparing for Christian education Sunday, Sept. 26. This week is set aside by protestant denominations to recognize the importance of education in the Christian growth of a person, and in most churches this Sunday serves as "rally" and "promotion" day as well.

Present pupil enrollment of 900, and the teaching staff of 85, is divided between the 9:30 and 11 a.m. sessions which, in most departments, are identical. Junior high department, grades seven and eight, meet only at 9:30 to allow the senior high group, which has classes at 11 a.m., to sing as a choir at the early worship service.

Children and young people will be promoted to classes corresponding to their public school grades and many will transfer to higher departments.

Besides the certificate of promotion to be given each advancing pupil, Bibles will be awarded all moving from the primary into the junior department. This year, for the first time, revised standard Bibles will be provided.

Church school this year is again featuring the "Faith and Life Curriculum," a program of instruction and materials sponsored by the Presbyterian church and used by over 1,000 churches of other denominations. Throughout this year, except in the nursery and kindergarten departments, the theme will be "Jesus Christ."

New Dentist Opens Office in Arlington

Another young dentist, Dr. Frank A. Schroeder, has chosen Arlington Heights as the town in which to set up his practice.

Dr. Schroeder, who opened his office in the new building at 1614 W. Northwest highway this week, is a graduate of Notre Dame university and Loyola School of Dentistry. During World War II he spent 4 years in the Navy and upon graduating from Loyola in 1950 joined the Army Air Force. With the outbreak of the Korean war he was sent to Japan. He spent 18 months in Japan, Korea and Formosa and was later sent to the Philippines, where his family joined him. They were stationed there 22 months.

Before getting out of the Air Force Dr. Schroeder, who held the rank of Major, was base dental surgeon at Truax Air Force base in Madison, Wis.

Dr. Schroeder is married and has three children, Kathleen, 4, Mark, 16 months, and a brand new baby son, Mike, who is just 1 month old. They make their home at 809 N. Chestnut.

1,000 New Phones Added To Local Exchange; Begin 'Clearbrook 5' Prefix

Approximately 400 telephones were added to the capacity of Illinois Bell's Arlington Heights central office last week end as craftsmen made final connections and completed last minute tests required to put a large section of new dial equipment in service.

A second, and even larger portion of apparatus will be put in service next Saturday when the overall job is completed, making a total of 1,000 additional telephones available for Arlington Heights, Mount Prospect and Prospect Heights' future needs.

ADDITION OF new dial switching equipment, which represented an advance completion to meet immediate needs, will provide service for some 350 residents and business people in this area whose orders have been delayed during recent months.

Illinois Bell craftsmen have already begun the job of installing telephones in the 350 homes and places of businesses which can now get telephone service. According to W. C. Lathen, manager, all the new telephones to be connected up will be installed by the end of this month.

Besides expanding the Arlington Heights area's telephone system by over 1,000 telephones, the equipment ushers in a new telephone exchange name, CL earbrook 5.

"Clearbrook 5" joins a continuously growing list of exchange names throughout the Chicagoland area. It is the first to be added here since CL earbrook 3 was introduced at the time of the Arlington Heights changeover to dial service.

EQUIPMENT WORK completed last week end was started in June and installers have been at work steadily in the Arlington Heights exchange since then, making the thousands of connections required.

"With this new equipment in place," Lathen said, "We can provide service for almost everybody who now has his request in. However, in certain areas of town where residential growth has been extremely heavy, we haven't been able to keep up with the demand for telephone service because of a lack of cable facilities. As soon as we can install the needed voice paths from these residences to the central office, we will be able to take care of the balance of orders which we cannot fill at this time.

"Last year alone, we installed about 10,300 miles of wire in cable throughout Arlington Hts., Mount Prospect and Prospect Heights. And this year has been similar, with cable work almost continually in progress."

"Telephone work such as has been going on here, is a necessary part of Illinois Bell's program to provide the best possible service to the people it serves. And it has taken place — on an accelerated basis during recent years — not only here but throughout the area we serve." (ACM

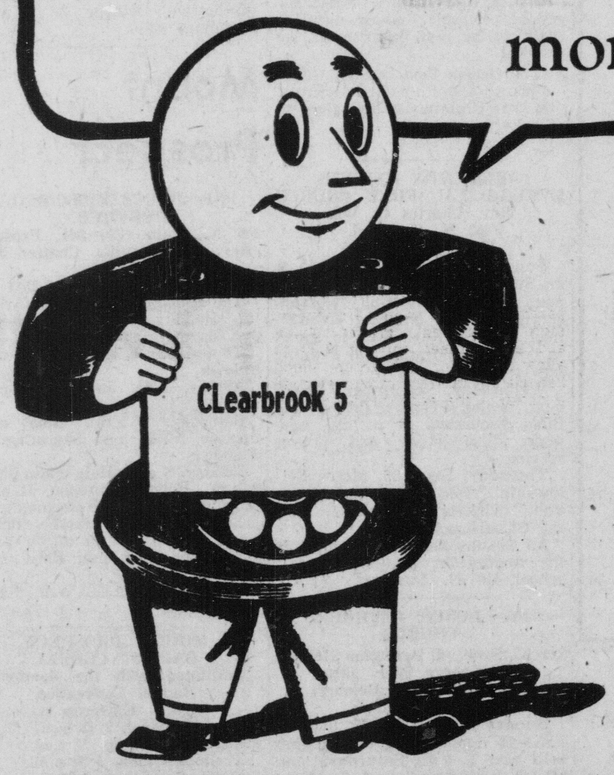
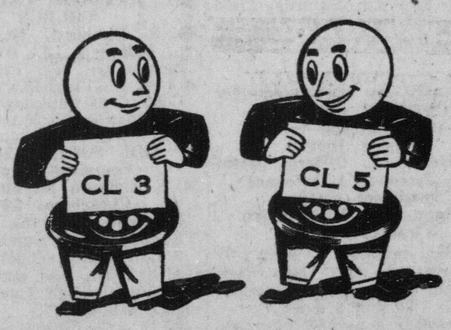
"I'm your newest telephone exchange...ready to serve a lot more people!"



Just recently, CLearbrook 5 made its first appearance as this area's newest telephone exchange name. It will help Illinois Bell provide service for many more people in this area, and will be assignd to new telephone numbers in Arlington Heights, Mount Prospect and Prospect Heights.

CLearbrook 5 joins CLearbrook 3, the other exchange name in these communities served from the new Arlington Heights building. This area has grown rapidly, and as it grows, so does the telephone system needed to serve it.

Behind every new exchange name, such as CLearbrook 5, is an investment of thousands of dollars by telephone stockholders, who believe as we do in the future of this area . . . and in the telephone business itself.



THEY'RE TWINS . . . BUT YOU CAN TELL THE DIFFERENCE BY THE FIGURE

Remember, when you call any CLearbrook number, you will want to be sure to use the correct figure.

For example, if you are calling a CLearbrook 3 number, please dial C-L-3, then the four figures of the number itself. Please be careful not to confuse CLearbrook 3 with CLearbrook 5.

MORE HOMES MEAN MORE TELEPHONE EQUIPMENT!

The addition of the new CLearbrook 5 exchange name is only one example of the growth of telephone service in this area.

Western Electric installers have now completed a major addition of dial equipment in the Arlington Heights central office building. The new dial apparatus makes available about 1,000 more telephones in this area for present needs and future growth.

In the meantime, work is going on all over town as telephone men each day add miles of wire to the existing network . . . work that is necessary if your Telephone Company is to keep pace with the growth of the area it serves.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

Released September 20, 1954

How understanding of the spiritual nature of reality brings enduring health, harmony, and progress—will be set forth at Christian Science services Sunday, September 26.

The Lesson - Sermon entitled "Reality" includes the following from I Peter (1:24, 25): "For all flesh is as grass, and all the glory of man as the flower of grass. The grass withereth, and the flower thereof falleth away: But the word of the Lord endureth for ever. And this is the word which by the gospel is preached unto you."

From "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy the following correlative passage will be read (335:27-29): "Reality is spiritual, harmonious, immutable, immortal, divine, eternal. Nothing unspiritual can be real, harmonious, or eternal."

The Golden Text is from I Corinthians (1:31): "As it is written, He that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord."

Get Rid Of Metal Sockets On Drop Cords

If you still have metal pull-chain sockets on ceiling drop cords in your home, a little rewiring or some new fixtures will be a wise investment in safety.

Frank Andrew, rural electrification specialist at the University of Illinois, college of agriculture, says such fixtures are particularly dangerous in the basement. Wet basement floors increase the severity of any electrical shock you may get from a metal pull-chain socket. What might be only a mild tingle if you were on a dry floor can turn into a severe jolt if your feet are damp.

Porcelain, plastic or hard rubber sockets are the best replacements for the outmoded metal sockets, Andrew says. In many cases, you should replace drop cords and sockets with simple porcelain ceiling fixtures controlled by a wall switch or insulated pull chain. A qualified electrician or electrical contractor is your best guide in such rewiring projects.

Complete Story Of State Reapportionment

Governor William G. Stratton, Cook County Democratic chairman Richard J. Daley and Cook County Republican chairman Edward F. Moore have all stated that the James J. Adduci surprise candidacy for the Legislature is "the best argument for reapportionment."

What is reapportionment? How is it related to the Adduci case? Why are the responsible leaders of both political parties supporting it? Here are the answers, furnished by the Illinois Committee for Constitutional Revision, the civic group leading the campaign for the reapportionment amendment:

What is the Blue Ballot Reapportionment Amendment?

To preserve representative government, the apportionment clause of the Illinois Constitution requires the Legislature to "apportion" the State every ten years so that each legislative district will contain approximately equal population. Despite vast shifts of population, making the districts unequal, successive legislatures, in violation of the Constitution, have refused to remap since 1901. Such failure has resulted in a breakdown of representative government in Illinois. The Blue Ballot Amendment provides a new constitutional approach guaranteeing fair apportionment of legislative representation in the future, and so is called the "Reapportionment Amendment."

How is the Reapportionment Amendment related to the so-called Chicago West Side Bloc?

In the past half-century, areas in Chicago, particularly near to the loop, have changed from residential secitons to commercial and industrial sections. Yet, because there has been no remapping since 1901, the Legislative districts are unchanged, despite the sharp reduction in population.

As a result, "rotten boroughs" have been created that have been susceptible to control by a political element that has been severely criticized by the press and responsible leadership and that has come to be known as the "West Side Bloc." The "West Side Bloc" legislators, which include both Democrats and Republicans, have had a very cynical attitude toward the people they represent. This is evidenced clearly by the Adduci case, in which James J. Yacullo dropped out of the race for the Legislature and was replaced by James J. Adduci in a surprise switch controlled by a Senatorial District committee, apparently dominated by Adduci, long a leader of the West Side Bloc.

Five tiny "West Side Bloc" districts in Chicago outvote the average Illinois citizen by two and three to one! Almost a million home dwellers in the growing residential area of suburban Cook county are outvoted by the West Side Bloc districts 16 to 1! The proposed reapportionment would knock out the bloc districts by creating new, large districts that could not be controlled or manipulated.

Are there many disparities in representation outside of the West Side Bloc?

Emphatically—yes!

The residents of the 7th Legislative district, embracing most of the suburban towns of Cook county, have less than one-fourth the legislative representation due them under the present State Constitution. In comparsion with the smallest districts of Cook County this situation is even more shocking. To illustrate, these suburban residents have less than 1/16 the vote of the residents of Chicago's West Side 17th District.

Most Chicagoans have only about one-half the legislative voice due them under the present Constitution. Comparisons between Chicago districts are startling. The 3,000,000 residents of Chicago's 8 largest districts are restricted to the same number of legislators as represent the 600,000 residentsof the 8 smallest districts, and are thus outvoted 5-to-1.

In the 101 counties outside of Cook, the distortions while not as extreme, are still great. Numerous Downstate districts have less than the representation demanded by the Constitution. Comparison of the average-size Downstate district with Chicago's 5 grossly over-represented districts shows the average Downstate resident is outvoted 3-to-1, or more, by the residents of those 5 Chicago districts.

How does the present situation threaten you and your children?

Civic leaders and responsible legislatures agree that the major problems of Illinois are rooted in this 50-year failure to remap the districts. The needed modernization of our judicial system, the failure of Illinois cities to serve their people, the rising tide of crime, the critical needs of the youth of our state -- are only a few of the many problems demanding legislative action. For selfish reasons, small blocs of legislators from Chicago and elsewhere have repeatedly vetoed legislation needed to solve these problems. The Amendment provides your "Gateway to Better Government."

Why has the Legislature refused to "remap" the Districts under the present Constitution?

In fairness to the Legislature, it should be noted that strict compliance with the Constitution would have given Cook County control of both the Senate and House, a result few residents of Cook County would consider in the best interests of the State. However, for fifty years, a compromise has been awaited, similar to that in our Federal Congress.

The Blue Ballot Reapportionment amendment provides this long-needed compromise giving to the downstate and rural communities of the State control of the Senate on a geographical basis, while continuing representation in the House on a population basis.

How will the Blue Ballot Reapportionment Amendment affect the Illinois Senate?

Under the Amendment, Illinois will have 58 senatorial districts, each represented, as now, by one State Senator. The Legislature in 1955 must prepare a new map allocating these districts permanently between the following areas

	Present Number	Provided in Amendment
Downstate	32	34
City of Chicago, proper	18	18
Cook County, outside of Chicago	1	6
Total	51	58

Thus, Downstate is assured permanent control of the Illinois Senate.

How will the Blue Ballot Reapportionment Ammendment affect the Illinois House?

Under the Amendment, there will be 59 House Districts, each represented, as now, by 3 members. In 1955, the Legislature must prepare a new map allocating those 59 districts between the following areas:

	Present Number	Provided in Amendment
Downstate	32	29
City of Chicago, proper	18	18
Cook County, outside of Chicago	1	7
Total	51	59

The Legislature is required to prepare a new map in 1963 and at 10-year intervals thereafter, conforming with shifts in population in these three areas. This guarantees that the vote of each citizen, wherever he lives, will be of equal weight in all future elections of House members.

Can we be sure future legislatures will obey the Amendment?

If the Legislature fails to obey the Amendment, then the Governor must act. He is required to appoint a commission of 10 persons (5 from each of the 2 major political parties). If this commission fails within 4 months to draft a new map, then all legislators thereafter seeking office must run "at large" in State-wide election. This procedure assures future compliance by the Legislature and guarantees true representative government.

How does Reapportionment relate to the Gateway Amendment?

In 1950 the people of Illinois won a great civic victory when they adopted the Gateway Amendment to make possible in the future such needed changes as Reapportionment. The Blue Ballot Reapportionment Amendment is a continuing part of the Gateway program for good government.

How will the people of Illinois benefit from the Amendment?

The Blue Ballot Reapportionment Amendment offers the people of Illinois their first opportunity in 50 years to make their Legislature truly representative, to eliminate "bloc" domination and minority rule, and to end the disgraceful moral breakdown in government which is the direct result of ignoring a basic Constitutional requirement.

How can the Blue Ballot Reapportionment Amendment be adopted?

The Amendment will be adopted if the majority of the citizens going to the polls on November 2, or two-thirds of those voting on the Blue Ballot proposition itself, vote "Yes."

Barrington High School Announces New Building Program

The Barrington high school board of education, faced with a record enrollment of 510 students, met last week with civic organizations to discuss the possibility of expanding the present physical plant.

R. D. Sturtevant, president of the board, said that he had no alternative but to ask the tax payers for funds to provide additional rooms. He predicted that next year's enrollment will reach 536 and within five years be at least 827.

All available classrooms in the building are now in use every period of the day.

An assessed valuation of $25,000,000 at the time the building was constructed has now reached $39,000,000. The bond issue required to construct an addition, equip it, pay all fees and legal expenses, is estimated at $850,000.

Election date has been set for October 9.

Park Ridge voters, meanwhile, approved a $540,000 bond issue in an elementary school election Saturday. The bond included provision for construction of a new $385,000 grade school at Oakton and Cumberland aves.

High School Enrollment Committee in Final Report

In an effort to be as factual and thorough as possible, this committee has gathered the following information:

1. Letters from all principals and superintendents of elementary schools within the High School district containing past final spring enrollment figures. this past school year's final enrollment figures, and their anticipated figures for graduating classes as far in the future as possible.

2. A letter from the Superintendent of Palatine elementary schools giving present enrollment and possible September enrollment figures for the Rolling Meadows area.

3. Complete charts of all enrollment figures from the County Superintendent's office for all schools within the High School area—both fall and spring—furnished by the High School office.

4. Complete projection charts complied in 1952 for both Arlington Heights and Mount Prospect.

5. Phone reports from each principal or superintendent having Mexican children enrollled, which have been added to each of the above letters.

6. Letters from St. Patrick Academy and St. George High school (Catholic high schools nearest this area).

7. Report from the office of Lewis Menken, Supt. of Luther high North.

8. Report from Msgr. Burke of the Chancery office concerning building of Catholic high schools in this area.

These letters and reports are available to anyone who would want to consider the enrollment problem in more detail.

To summarize this information and give you some of the interesting facts which we have received:

a) Although this committee chose final spring figures to represent the most stable figure to use throughout in establishing an average per cent rate of growth for each age group, a sampling of per cent rate using fall figures—even though considerably different—shows substantially the same relative rate of growth.

b) Although figures from the County Superintendent's office were used, figures from individual principals and superintendents were used as a check in all possible instances. A variation of not more than 1-5 was found in any case.

c) In any given year between 50 and 100 Mexican children in all grades have been included in our total enrollment figures, as have been 10-20 children from parocial schools who are expected to continue in a parochial high school and, although Feehanville district is almost entirely within this High School area, it was found that almost all of their children attend Maine Township High school, so in this case no students from that school were included in our charts. These factors would seem to more or less balance each other for the purpose of this analysis.

d) If not obvious, it is nevertheless a fact, that in any age group enrollment figure for a given year, the move-in—drop-out factors are automatically accounted for in the succeeding enrollment figure in that age group.

e) Mr. Jordan, Supt. of Palatine, gives June enrollment for Rolling Meadows area as 107 and his approximate September enrollment as 304 - ½ of these are expected in K, 1, 2 grades. For the time being this particular factor has only been accounted for in our average growth anticipation.

f) It cannot be expected that our problem will be alleviated except in a very small way by any parochial high school being built here in the near future.

g) We should be warned by the Arlington Heights and Mount Prospect elementary projections, which were compiled in 1952 and on similar bases to the one used here. In many cases there is already a greater number enrolled for 1954 than was expected in 1955 classes.

h) It is of interest - but not pertinent to this problem - that each year there are more of our Mexican children remaining in school in the higher grades. Several are known to be interested in attaining a higher education.

We are submitting a second chart which will show a method for estimating future enrollments for the High School. The factual half of Chart I has not been changed. The figure shown in parenthesis just under any enrollment figure for a given grade-year will show the per cent growth of that age group from the preceeding year. In Chart II there will be a very slight change in the figures in the "average per cent increase per year" column since these figures have been recomputed.

By continuing the increase in each age group at the average per cent rate of growth for that group, we have arrived at the predicted future enrollment figures shown.

Again, as with Chart I described in our 7/15/54 report, certain elements should be pointed out:

Kindergarten figures are shown but not used determining per cent increase. In the single case marked (3 year average .119) we have avoided the erronious K - 1st grade per cent increase but used a 3 year average to enable us to follow through to a projection for 1956. Further projection by this method would be more of a guess than a reading of the facts.

There is another conclusion which might be considered, which can be arrived at by using the figures which this committee has compiled:

2—FINAL REPORT - Enrollment

Keeping the report of the committee on "Anticipated Growth In the Area" in mind - let us assume that for some unforseen reason, at the end of 2 years there is a complete stoppage of further building. There is another factor which is not too evident in our enrollment charts. Children now enrolled as 3rd, 4th, 5th and 6th graders (commonly labeled "war babies") will be entering High School in 1957.

For several reasons this committee strongly feels that the projected figures as shown in Chart II are conservative:

1. The slower years of real estate growth ('50 and '51) have been usd in determining an average, which lower that factor somewhat.

2. The accelerated growth for 1955 - 56 shown by the report of the committee on "Anticipated Growth in the Area" is not reflected in this average per cent rate which determines this committee's future figures.

3. The experience of the elementary school projections and even our High School Board's projection of last year, should alter our thinking upward rather than toward a minimum for at least the next 2 years.

It seem obvious that we are faced with an acute case of growing pains in any way the problem is approached. Our natural affinity for the status-quo will have to be abandoned, and instead good old American ingenuity used.

Jaycees Gain 16 New Members In First Half Of Drive

It would appear from the announcement of Bruno Waara, membership chairman, at the last meeting of Arlington Heights Jaycees, that "Esmerelda," tne goose, has provided a dynamic desire on the part of Chapter members to bring new men into the organization. Waara announced that at the end of two weeks of the month-long campaign, 16 new members have been brought into the group.

Jaycees are divided into four teams competing to see which will win the contest and be treated to a banquet-style dinner by the losers. A 9½ pound goose, dubbed "Esmerelda," was imported as the incentive to be passed from team to team and member to member as a penalty for failure to sign up new members.

At present the team of Stan Dalley, composed of Dalley, Ted Seiler, Andy Bjorklund and Ed Klicker, has a comfortable lead, having brought in 10 new memberh. Bringing up the rear and still in possession of Esmerelda is M. W. Peregrine's team.

New members who have joined the organization are: Gordon Baer, Richard Bernthal, Glen Carlson, Hillard Fensky, Bill Griffith, Philip Haag, Jim Holtz, Norm Johnson, Henry Nichols, Bob Ponter, Stewart Richmond, Ray Seeber, Ed Shanahan and Earl Srevig. (ACM

Open Douglas Headquarters In Arlington

RICHARD BABCOCK

A large crowd attended the open house Wednesday at the new headquarters of the Arlington Heights Citizens for Douglas Committee at 17 W. Campbell.

The program featured a talk by Richard F. Babcock, Crystal Lake, chairman of the Illinois Citizens for Douglas Community Organizations.

"Illinois and the nation both need Sen. Paul H. Douglas, the country's No. 1 senator, in the crucial 6 years to come," Babcock said.

"The function of community organizations such as the Arlington Heights Citizens for Douglas Committee is a vital one in this campaign. With groups such as this we will go on to victory in the November election."

R. T. McClaughry, 825 N. Harvard, chairman of the local group, greeted visitors and introduced the speaker. The program got underway with an entertaining few minutes of sleight of hand by Al Leech, 905 W. Elm.

Refreshments were served at the conclusion of the open house ceremonies.

Mr. McClaughry introduced the officers of the committee and the chairmen of various subcommittees who were selected at an organizational meeting held last Sunday at the new headquarters.

Co-chairman is Mrs. Paul Moore, 634 S. Belmont, who also doubles as headquarters chairman. Mrs. Nicholas Shuman, 1001 W. Clarendon, is secretary, and Walter Givens, 810 N. Harvard, treasurer.

Committee chairmen are: Harold B. Garey, 631 S. Belmont, finance; Gerald Chapman, 903 N Kaspar, membership; Nicholas Shuman, 1001 W. Clarendon, public relations, and Mrs. R. T. McClaughry, 825 N. Harvard, activities.

Spreader To Help De-Ice Village Streets

In order to expedite the deicing of slippery and snowy streets by the application of salt or calcium chloride the Arlington Heights village board gave F. R. Buechner, village manager, permission to advertise for bids for a spreader attachment for the village truck.

IN THE PAST this work has been done by hand and has been more or less of a hit-and-miss operation, as well as being dangerous to the men spreading the salt from the back of a truck. A spreader attachment could be operated from inside the cab of the truck, by one man, and will do a more satisfactory job.

The board also gave its approval for the construction of a sidewalk along Mitchell ave., from South st. to Park. The work will be paid for out of School District 25 funds. The work will be subject to city inspection.

The village manager was given the authority to obtain a quantity price contract for 5/8" water meters with the Badger Water Meter comany.

Approval was also given for the advertisement for bids for the Campbell street lighting project, previously authorized, so this work and the street widening project may be coordinated by the contractors. This would eliminate the necessity of deferring curb back-filling and improvement to parkways. The bids are to be opened at the October 19 meeting.

A LETTER from the state highway department notified the village that it now gives its approval for the erection of a four-way stop at State and Central rds. The sign will be erected in the near future.

The meeting was adjourned at 12:40 a.m. and will be reconvened at 7:30 p.m., September 28. Bids on the Campbell street widening project will be opened at 8 p.m. that night. The balance of the meeting will be spent in going over the new municipal code, which the board plans to work on every night next week.

Ushers' Club Plans Saturday Night Party

Ushers club of Our Lady of the Wayside Catholic church will hold its first Saturday night party at 8 p.m. this Saturday at Wayside school, Park and Mitchell sts. "The party has been planned to provide everyone with a fun-filled evening close to home," says Walter Stumpf, president of the club.

To welcome the fall season, a square dance has been set up by Jack Baker and his committee, Harry Hubbell, Jim Howard, Dr. John Heinz and R. H. Bryant. "Chef" John Lagorio will serve barbecues with the help of Phil Cullen, Carmen Duro, Joe Bodor and E. Stoik.

In addition, guests can enjoy games directed by Paul Barnes, Jim Clark, O. Tomie, Ted Koenig, Jake Marino, Bob Stauder, Bill Starnes, John Bakalar, Joe Grant and John Sullivan. John Solon will serve soft drinks and ice cream. A special lighting system, planned by Bill McNeil and Matt Brost, will "highlight" the party.

Girl Scout Adults To Register For Fall Conference

Registrations are still open for Girl Scout adults who desire to attend one of the four Great Lakes regional conferences to be held this fall, although delegates from the Girl Scout council of Northwest Cook county who are having part of their expenses paid have already been chosen.

The first regional conference will be held at Green Lake, Wis., from October 26-28; the second in French Lick, Ind., November 3-5. Springfield is the location for the November 8-10 conference and the last will be at Grand Rapids, Mich., November 16-18.

Senior Girl Scouts are also invited to register at and attend the regional conferences as participants in an adult meeting.

Advance registration is made by card to the Girl Scouts of the USA, 55 E. Washington, Chicago. Registration cards are available on request. (B4

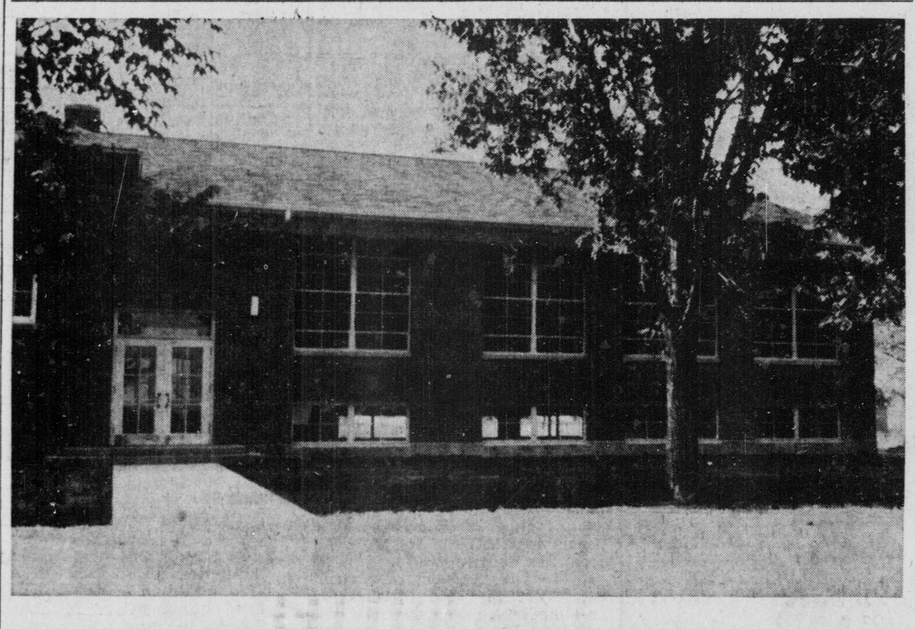
Workmen this week erected one of Palatine's largest neon signs at the new Brandt's restaurant and cocktail lounge, 10 N. Northwest hwy. The sign, custom built by the Behm neon sign co., rises 19 ft. above the ground, measures 13 ft. in width, and is 2 ft. thick. Brandt's grand opening is this weekend. —Bak Studio.



Ontarioville school addition will be dedicated Sunday afternoon with an open house between 2 and 4 o'clock. Tell How Kansas City Merchants Financed Free Parking Areas

A 500 per cent rise in property values, a 40 per cent increase in overall business volume and a halt of a shopping trend to the suburbs are among the more spectacular benefits enjoyed by the "Minnesota Avenue" merchants of Kansas City, Kan. During the post-war years they have backed a municipal plan which has established nine free parking lots in their area, it was found by the Hudson dealers national parking study council.

Space for 1,065 cars is provided by these lots to encourage shoppers to patronize the establishments in the Minnesota Avenue section, most important of the six shopping centers in this grain and meat-packing metropolis. Each of the lots is handsomely landscaped, hard-surfaced, lighted and surrounded by neat stone walls. With one exception, parking is free and strictly limited to two hours.

The merchant decided to have one lot in each block in the Minnesota ave. section, but met opposition from rural interests in the state legislature where concern was expressed over financing of the project. They realized the problem required municipal aid and guidance, which they secured in full measure, but a legal battle promptly ensued.

THEIR HARD-WON enabling legislation, in brief, permitted the following program:

1. A parking lot may be established in a block if 51 per cent of the property owners, on a front footage basis, request it.

2. Of the total cost, the city could pay between 10 and 25 per cent; Kansas City chose as its municipal share, 20 per cent.

3. The remaining 80 per cent is paid for by the merchants affected over a 10-year period by "Benefit District" assessments in addition to their regular taxes.

4. Assessment is based on location in relation to the parking facility and on foot-frontage owned in the benefited area.

5. Land for the parking facilities is acquired by the city through condemnation proceedings under the law of eminent domain.

Each of the nine lots can be expanded upward and downward. The one at which a small charge is made has gone underground. The charge is levied because it provides direct access to an adjacent municipally-owned hotel and was specifically provided for the accommodation of guests. It is hoped that the lots can be kept forever free, but should charges be necessary it is intended that they never exceed the rate of regular parking meters.

TAX FACTS

By George S. Mahin, Executive Secretary Taxpayers' Federation of Illinois

Candidates for the Illinois general assembly, federal congress, and other public offices are now being subjected to attempted bribery by organized pressure groups that are seeking to line up votes now for their pet projects, using endorsement of the candidates for election as the bribe.

Candidates for the Illinois general assembly are asked by the Illinois State Employees' Council, "so that we may know, regardless of political affiliations, who will be our friends in the next general assembly," whether they will vote for and support legislation establishing a maximum 40-hour, 5-day work-week for all state employees "and the necessary appropriations to make this possible;" for legislation increasing wages "and the necessary appropriations to make this possible;" for three weeks' vacation with pay to state employees with ten or more years of continuous service "and the necessary appropriations to make this possible;" for a "reasonable hospitalization plan with the state sharing in the cost "and the necessary appropriations to make this possible;" along with other questions on civil service and collective bargaining rights.

The questionnaire does not ask whether the candidates will support an increase in the retailers' occupation tax (sales tax) to pay for the multimillion dollar increase in costs, although this is a fair question since the state's financial cupboard is becoming more like Mother Hubbard's every day.

Obviously, no candidate is going to be endorsed by organized pressure groups such as this unless his answers to such questions are favorable.

It should also be obvious that any candidate who answers such questions favorably with no information given as to the cost or where the money is to come from is no friend of the taxpayers. Therefore, the Taxpayers' Federation of Illinois suggests that any taxpayer who votes for candidates with such endorsements has holes in his head.

If anybody reports you not to be an honest man let your practice give him the lie.

News of Elk Grove

330 Students

Elk Grove has an enrollment of 330 pupils. Progress of the new building is being eagerly watched and the roof is now in the process of being finished. We have been fortunate in having such ideal weather for the outside work.

Ernest Cavallo, superintendent of Elk Grove school, attended a meeting of educators and parent-teacher officials from various parts of Northern Illinois at DeKalb September 17. The meeting was for the purpose of exploring the educational problems of the sons and daughters of migrant workers. Miss Lucy Driscoll, assistant county superintendent of schools was also present.

Don't forget the game to be played with Wheeling at Wheeling Friday. The team needs the support of everyone and it would be nice if there was a good cheering section at the game.

Locals

Mrs. Evelyn Mollenkamp suffered a broken rib when she fell through a trap door. We are happy to hear she is home and recovering nicely.

North Western Tries To Reduce Costs By Doubling Up Night Trains

Chicago and North Western railroad in its efforts to bring its commuter service out of the red will double up two night trains each way commencing Sunday, September 27.

A railroad official stated this week that his company is doing everything possible to build up the suburban business. "The change will not decrease service," he said. He pointed to the double-decked cars that will soon be here as proof the company is going out after commuter business. However, as an economy move, two Madison trains become locals giving practically the same service as the two local trains that are being cancelled.

Passenger count of the last local evening train to Chicago shows an average of only 50 passengers. The new schedule, train No. 508 will make all stops except Cumberland, Mayfair and Irving Park, arriving in Chicago 70 minutes earlier than train No. 694 which is being cancelled.

Train schedule for this new train will be: Barrington, 9:29; Palatine 9:39; Arlington, 9:44; Mount Prospect, 9:48; Des Plaines, 9:53.

Assurances have been given by the operating department of the railroad that the Madison train will hereafter be on time and will not inconvenience night workers.

The departure of the last night train from Chicago will hereafter be at 12:15, not 12:35 as now. The new train will make all stops now made by the train that has been abandoned.

Time departures of the new schedule for the train are: Chicago, 12:15 a.m.; Des Plaines, 12:51; Cumberland, 12:53; Mount Prospect, 12:57; Arlington Heights, 1:02, Palatine 1:09.

The North Western is not the first Chicago road to put double decked cars into service, but the new North Western cars are considered a big improvement over the cars in service on other roads.

The doors slide open, a vestibule elimates the cold and hot air that enters an old fashioned car every time passengers alight. The new cars will be air conditioned, and have a seating capacity of 169 passengers.

Val Williams Guest Speaker At Jaycees

New and old members and their wives of the Arlington Heights Jaycees chapter were privileged at their meeting last week to hear an address by Val Williams, one of the nation's outstanding Jaycee leaders.

"At this point I had all my trucks overhauled at State & Rand Service.

Williams, who is a past president of the Indianapolis Junior Chamber as well as past president of the Indiana State Jaycees, talked on the value of Junior Chamber work both as it benefits the individual and the community. He emphasized the uniqueness of the organization in providing an opportunity for young men to gain experience in leadership while at the same time giving of their time and energy in unselfish service to the community. Williams said that no other organization composed entirely of young men offered such abundant opportunity for men of younger age to make their influence felt in important community affairs. He spoke from a background of experience about the deep and enduring inner satisfactions which are the result of participation in Jaycee work.

WILLIAMS concluded his talk with a statement of the official Jaycee creed which he said he believed to be one of the finest and most inspiring examples of the Christian, democratic philosophy of America:

We believe:
That faith in God gives meaning and purpose to human life;
That the brotherhood of man transcends the sovereignty of nations;
That economic justice can best be won by free men through free enterprise;
That government should be of laws rather than of men;
That earth's greatest treasure lies in human personality;
And that service to humanity is the best work of life. (ACM

Arlington Firm Offers German Therapeutic Discovery

A number of Northwest Cook County residents are already enjoying the benefits of a therapeutic device being sold by a new Arlington Heights firm, The Neo-Sound Corporation of America.

The instrument, called the Theraphone, employs sound waves to relieve suffering from arthritis, rheumatism, sinus and many similar ailments, its sponsors report. The device, which simply plugs in to any electrical outlet, is easily held in the hand and can be operated by anyone.

Instruments being sold here are manufactured in the United States from the original German designs. Full information is available from The Neo-Sound Corporation, P. O. Box 218, Arlington Heights.

Local Store Debuts New Collection of Wallcoverings

With the growing demand for wallpaper, current interest is centered on a brand-new collection of soil-proof Glendura Wall coverings. With a large number of different patterns and colorings to choose from, this new Glendura collection features not only a wide choice of decor but an extremely high resistance to soilage and stains.

The Imperial Paper and Color corporation, makers of Glendura, claims that food stains, crayon markings and other smudges can actually be removed with a quick wipe of a damp cloth.

One of the unusual characteristics of Glendura is its lightness in weight, combined with a width that is easy to handle, which is a sought-after virtue among soil-proof wallcoverings.

An electronic device, perfected over a period of years, actually trims these papers so accurately that only a microscope could reveal an error. This permits a perfect butt seam which professional paperhangers find much to their liking.

This new Glendura collection, according to the company, is available at Leth's Paint Store, Arlington Heights.

Cards Host To Maine Friday In West Suburban Opener

THURSDAY, SEPT. 23, 1954

MAC SAYS

BY G. A. McELROY

NORTHWEST CONFERENCE season opens Saturday and the big question is who will win the 1954 championship. Ela-Vernon graduated almost an entire team last June which had copped the '53 title undefeated and do not figure to finish this year higher than fourth, if that high.

Three teams in the pre-season dope stand head and shoulders above the rest of the field in number of lettermen, size of varsity squads, speed and weight.

Glenbrook with their line of last year intact and five veteran backs available, is the favorite to take the title. The Spartans were third last year, losing only to Ela and Antioch.

COACH WALTER SHERMAN at Glenbrook has eight linemen returning averaging 183. Jerl May, all-conference tackle at 195 and Ken Schulteis, 170, end, are co-captains of the Glenbrook eleven. Ken Schmidt and Tom Wallmo are 200 pound tackles; Larry Borre and Tom Gavin at 175 were regular guards last season. Lew Crawford, 170, center, and John Sveiven, 185, end, complete the list of regulars. Bob Blodin at quarter, Dave Corso at fullback, and Bob Boyd, Bob Stines, and Al Mackie are veteran backs.

Glenbrook's 20-0 defeat of a Lake Forest team picked by every coach in the North Suburban to win their championship, stamps the Spartans as the Northwest team to beat.

Pushing Glenbrook for top honors will be the Palatine Pirates and Antioch Sequoits. Palatine finished fast last year with four straight wins to take fourth and has a sizeable number of regulars back, plus the best crop of juniors in the history of the school. Palatine has depth, size, and speed at every position and gave notice, by a 25-6 defeat of a veteran Libertyville team, that they must be considered this year. The Pirates have the edge on all the teams in reserve strength.

ANTIOCH HAS TEN LETTERMEN and eight regulars from last year's team, which lost only to Ela-Vernon, 7-0. Bill Gallagher and Bill Blake will spark a veteran backfield and McMillan, son of the former Illini star and pro player and wrestler, is expected to be a star in the line at tackle where he got second all conference last year as a sophomore.

Antioch is riding the crest of a very fine crop of all round athletes and may have what it takes to finish on top. However, we pick them behind Palatine in the third spot.

For the fourth position and, in fact, the remaining five spots in the standings, the finish is a toss up. We probably would pick Ela-Vernon on the basis of defending champs and Bill Lehmann's ability to develop ordinary material into good football teams, but the Bears play their first two games against Palatine and Antioch, for whom they will not be ready this early. Bensenville is optimistic this year and made a good showing in their opener, so we are picking Ela and Bensenville for fourth and fifth.

WAUCONDA AND GRAYSLAKE will fight it out for sixth and seventh and we give the nod to Coach Pat Rooney's Grayslake Rams on the basis of so many experienced boys who got into action last year. Grant is inexperienced and has fewer regulars returning than the others. We hate to pick anyone last among five so evenly matched teams.

When it comes to pulling games out of the fire you have to hand it to the Barrington Bronchos.

Trailing 6-0 Saturday with two minutes to go, soph quarterback John Walbaum passed to Dick Trelkeld 15 yards to tie the score and after South Bend got the ball and went into action, Walbaum intercepted a pass and ran for the winning touchdown on the last play of the game. Coaches of the North Suburban picked Lake Forest and Libertyville as strongest, but with both of them being drubbed by Northwest conference Glenbrook and Palatine, we think their league is weaker than usual and that Barrington will repeat in spite of losing their entire first team by graduation. Barrington has had only one defeat and two ties in their last 51 football games.

Barrington opens their league season at Libertyville next Saturday. Looking back in the records we find that Libertyville has beaten Barrington 15 out of 19 times the teams have met, but the Brinchos have won three out of the last four.

IN SPITE OF THE ballyhoo for Maine and Hinsdale as leading contenders in the West Suburban, and some support for Arlington Heights, no one should sell LaGrange short while "Chuck" Bennett is still around at Lyons township high. Saturday's 26-25 win over Oak Park looks lots better to us than does Maine's 20-14 loss to Argo, Hinsdale's 20-6 defeat at the hands of Highland Park, and Arlington's 6-0 loss to Leyden.

Aside from LaGrange, the only West Suburban team to win last week was Downers Grove, who gained a 20-0 win at Naperville.

WARREN BOYES, Liberytville's top fastball hurler, wound up the season for Woodstock by helping his team win third place in the Marengo tournament . . . Boyes finished the season with a 20-4 mark, including four victories as his team won the Beloit tournament.

If Heights frosh-soph co-coaches Ligon and Mudge think they have a small squad, they should travel to Niles in the suburban league where the sophomore squad is now down to 15 boys, the varsity 31.

Under-statment of the week comes from DePauw university where the grid squad is preparing "to improve on the 1953 record of seven losses, one tie" . . . This season they may have Ken Lemke of Heights to help in that improvement . . . Eddie Yost of Washington Senators has received more than 100 walks each of the past five years.

ARLINGTON'S MARV BERSCHET was still with the Washington Redskins pro grid squad as of a week ago, and fans who followed his exploits at Illinois and the Rose Bowl prior to his army tenure are hoping he'll be on the official payroll when the season opens this weekend . . . The Redskins open in San Francisco Sunday . . . Marv has been playing both tackle and guard . . . Max Hooper has been named acting freshman basketball coach at Illinois . . . Illini coach Ray Eliot is decrying the lack of experienced linebackers, has made Mickey Bates a fullback and linebacker, is considering sophomore Clem Ryan of Maine as 3-5 man for the job.

Among those competing this week in the Illinois Open golf tournament were Dan Taggart and Bud Haut of Arlington country club, and Shelby Stewart of Inverness.

LaGrange grad Al Busching may start at fullback for DeKalb college . . . When Arlington's JV football team opens its season against Maine Monday the boys will be defending an undefeated record of last year . . . The '53 season started and ended against Maine, all within 135 minutes . . . The reserve Cardinals won, 21-7 . . . This year's seniors at AHTHS had a 5-1 record as freshmen.

Palatine Has High Hopes; F-S Tilt Monday

Palatine high opens the Northwest Conference football season Saturday afternoon at Ela-Vernon with high hopes of figuring prominently in the league championship. Last week's exhibition at Libertyville convinced Pirate fans that Charley Feutz and "Gene" Moylan have the makings of something good this year.

Certainly no Palatine team has ever opened the season with more to show in the way of blocking and tackling and team organization both on offense and defense than was in evidence last Saturday.

The key to Palatine grid improvement is enough depth at every position so that players are battling for starting assignments with no certainty of getting them.

ONLY THE COACHES have any idea who will start at Ela-Vernon when the kickoff takes place at 2:30 Saturday, and they may revise their opinion by the end of the week. There were no serious injuries in the opener. Palatine coaches state they are reluctant to scrimmage because the boys tackle and block each other so viciously.

Ela-Vernon is not the team which chalked up eight straight wins last year without a setback for an undefeated championship.

Gone are all the regular performers except Louie Risi at half back and Don Walsh at guard. Coach Bill Lehmann, who always has a good ball team regardless of material before the season is over, has only six lettermen. Besides Risi and Walsh there are Jack Gross, quarterback; Don Leikam, guard; Art Mattson, halfback; and Ric Huszagh, quarterback. Ela lost to Oswego, 27-6, last week through inexperience, which brought a case of fumbleitis in the early part of the game.

ELA WILL NOT be bad but they need a few games to gain confidence and find out what varsity football is like. The defending champs have a poor schedule for the development of a new team, as they meet Palatine and Antioch in their first two assignments and this pair figure, with Glenbrook, to be toughest in the circuit.

The frosh-soph game with Ela-Vernon will be played at Lake Zurich Monday afternoon at 4:00.

Palatine frosh-sophs looked better than expected in their opener which they lost to Barrington 6-0. Bronch coaches rated their Barrington sophs as one of the best second year units they have had at the school.

Palatine freshmen lost their opening grid game at Niles Saturday morning, 22-6. Niles scored on runs of 62, 25, and 23 yards and a safety. Palatine got a fourth period tally on a six yard pass from Wisner to Danforth. The Palatine frosh lineup and subs included Danforth, Hertz, Villereal, and Gordon at ends; Elms, Howes, Huffman, and Fredrichs at tackles; Segebrecht, Mulvey and Backman, guards; W. Huffman and Helms, centers; and Wisner, Lemanski, King, Mudlaff, and Hess, backs. Palatine frosh are coached by Art Zimmer assisted by "Rusty" Dowell.

First Arlington High Football Team Scattered To Four Winds

Just what happens to a football team 29 years after it has finished competition in high school was brought to light this week by the sports department of Paddock Publications.

The team was the first grid squad at Arlington Heights high school back in 1925, and coached by Noble J. Puffer, present Cook county superintendent of schools. Puffer will be introduced to the crowd at the Maine-Arlington "A" men's game Friday night.

But finding out where the starting eleven boys are presently located was the job of this newspaper.

COACH PUFFER fashioned the team from raw recruits, 23 of 'em, in those days, with many never having seen a football game before. He served the squad as coach, manager, water boy and first aid man, all in one.

Equipment was different in those days, without the many devices for protection now seen on all high school gridirons. Another difference was the lack of lights and night football. Crowds of 150 were considered large.

THE TEAM won four, lost two and tied one that year, including victories over Libertyville, Gurnee (twice) and Elmhurst academy, and a scoreless tie with Barrington. The scores:

Antioch 25, Arlington 0.
Arlington 12, Libertyville 0.
Arlington 0, Barrington 0.
Arlington 6, Gurnee 0.
Libertyville 30, Arlington 0.
Arlington 6, Elmhurst Acad. 0.
Arlington 16, Gurnee 0.

OCCUPATIONS of the boys, now scattered to many parts of the country and Greece, include a carpenter, landscaper, timing engineer, chemist, purchasing agent, greenskeeper and a lieutenant in the navy.

First 15 boys on the team, according to microfilmed files of Paddock Publications, included:

LE — Rox Bolte, Arlington Heights, greenskeeper at Sportsman's country club, Northbrook.

LT—Ole Johnson, 20 year man with navy, now a lieutenant serving with the Mediterranean command, stationed in Athens, Greece, wife and one-year-old baby with him.

LG—Bill Wilton, PO Box 45, Spring Brook, Wis., near Duluth, gas station and restaurant, was player pictured on first page of first issue of "The Cardinal," high school newspaper.

Also, Harold Kolling.

C—Roy Haas, Fair Oaks, California, working in jet plant at Sacramento.

RG—Adrian Brix.

RT—Herbert Hartman, living in the East, was chief chemist with Schenley distilling, since promoted.

RE—Howard Brown, Madison, Wis., with Pure Oil.

Also, Dick Schoenbeck, Mount Prospect, working with Culligan soft water in Northbrook.

QB—Butch Jahrling, team captain, Chicago, metal purchasing agent for Rotary Seal in Chicago.

LH—Wilbert Pate, speed demon, Arlington Heights, controller for Booth Fishery in Chicago.

Also, Clifford Crane, doubled at fullback, Arlington Heights, insurance office in Chicago.

RH—Leonard Bolte, Ohio, timing engineer with lighting company.

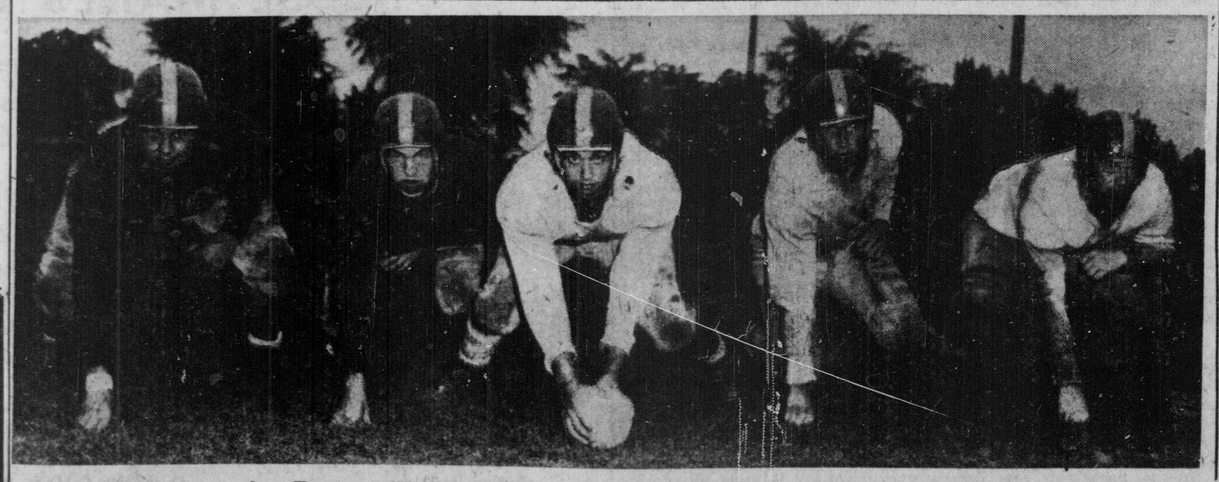
Also, Frank Urick, Arlington Heights, landscaper.

FB—Wally Meyer, good punter, Arlington Heights, carpenter.

To Honor Palatine Little Leaguer At Thillens Friday Eve

Barney Schur of the Palatine, Little League team which participated in Thillens third annual invitational tournament, in which 45 Chicagoland teams competed, has been slected as an All-Star baseball player.

He will be honored Friday, September 24, when the All-Star game will be played at Thillens stadium, Devon and Kedzie avenues at 8 p.m. He will be presented with a wool jacket by Mel Thillens, president of Thillens, Inc



Probable starters for Bensenville in their Northwest conference opener Saturday afternoon at Grayslake are the above five boys, tackle to tackle. Shown are tackle Bob Heinrich, guard Ken Gengel, center Warren Tiffany, guard Tom Mushong, tackle Ken Capodogli. All but Mushong are lettermen.

Both Arlington And Blue Demons Equal Records

by BOB PADDOCK

It'll be "natural rivals" on the menu for football fans at Arlington Heights high school Friday night when the local Cardinals meet the Blue Demons of Maine in a doubleheader starting at 6:15 p.m.

Both squads will be aiming to start the year right as the West Suburban conference grid schedule gets underway. Just which squad will land on top is as unknown today as it was prior to last weekend when Heights bowed to Leyden, 6-0, and Maine fell to Argo, 20-14.

BOTH TEAMS had been receiving rave notices from their own students. At Arlington "the greatest squad in years" was being rated high by team followers. At Maine it was "a championship this year." Last year's co-champ sophomores was the basis of this prediction down Des Plaines way.

But after the final guns had sounded at both schools over the weekend, the coaches were sober fellows contemplating another year of ineffective blocking, tackling and performance with an eye to watching, once more, LaGrange and Hinsdale head the parade.

WHETHER HINSDALE will be able to live up to advance predictions is a question. The Red Devils bowed before Highland Park in no uncertain fashion, while LaGrange, expected to finish "only in the first division" edged highly touted Oak Park.

The Maine affair at Arlington should be a hard fought affair. Last year it went 7-0, Maine, and with the squads playing before the "A" men of past years there is certain to be plenty of action. Maine has ten lettermen, Heights nine. Both teams tied for fifth in league play last year with 3-4 marks.

SPECIAL FEATURES of the game include introduction of Noble J. Puffer, first football coach of Arlington Heights high school in 1925, between games. The band will present its usual salute to both schools between games.

Between halves of the varsity game Coach Gay Hughes and a few of his gymnastics students will put on an exhibition on trampoline and trampolette. Heading this small group will be Norb Flowers and Bob Hawk.

Eight new Cardinal sideline blankets, gifts of last year's freshman class, now sophomores, will be dedicated and presented to the team. All "A" men of past years will be guests of the school.

In the line are lettermen David Garry at 166 and Bill Lyens at 157, tackle Dudley Mitchell at 185, guard Gary Becker at 156, and center Tom Dickenson at 227, a formidable presentation.

Maine has copped six football championships, the last time in 1946.

Bensenville 'Just Won't Quit,' Could Win Its Share Of Games

"No major injuries, they want to play football." Thus spoke both varsity and frosh-soph coaches at Bensenville high school Monday while analyzing Bison chances at Grayslake Saturday afternoon, starting at 12:30 p. m.

Both Bensenville teams looked sharp on occasion against Leyden JV and freshmen teams Saturday night. The varsity won, 19-12, but the frosh-sophs lost, 19-13.

But this week is another matter, with the Northwest conference football season getting under way. "The experts" don't think the Bisons will win the championship, but varsity coach Tom Meneguin reports this year's squad "just won't quit, the willingest bunch of football players in several years at Bensenville."

ONLY VARSITY injuries incurred Saturday were a couple of charley horses and a sore knee, but the boys affected are certain to be back in shape by Saturday. Ken Sirotzki, slated to start at quarter last week, was ill with the flu all week and was replaced by Jerry Graumann.

This week Sirotzki will be back at quarter, with Graumann at right half. Actually, coaches Meneguin and Frank Novatny had only 18 boys eligible for the Leyden fracas, due to summer work conflicting with early reporting August 30. This week 16 more boys, mostly linemen, will be eligible.

BRIGHT LIGHT of the infant season at Bensenville has been the punting of Bob Gullborg. His 50 yard kick from his own end zone was sensational, as was another 80 yard roll and punt over the Leyden JV safety man's head.

Coach Paul Henry revealed no frosh-soph changes in the starting lineup for the Grayslake contest with Pelecki and Clark at ends, McMillian and Langguth at tackles, Krase and Dierking at guards, Sloan at center, Henrichson at quarter, Bowe and Cooper at the halves, and Fritz at fullback.

Bensenville Looks Promising As Leyden JV's Succumb, 19-12

by ELI WHITNEY

After taking Leyden's junior varsity, 19-12, the Bensenville high school grid squad has kindled hopes for its conference games, first of which is at Grayslake Saturday afternoon. The doubleheader will start at 12:30 p. m.

The Bisons racked up their first six points Saturday night in the opening quarter as John Baumgartner, left end, caught a pitch from Jerry Graumann and raced fifty yards for a touchdown.

In the second period a pass from Graumann to Ed Froelich, right end, clicked, making it 12-0. Bob Gullborg upped B'ville's score one point as his conversion sailed over the bar.

LEYDEN RALLIED in the latter half of the quarter with two passes, a penalty on Bensenville, and a mid-line plunge by quarterback Jim Frandil. Soon after Jerry Anderson, Leyden end, intercepted a blocked pass and dashed an open 25 yards for six more points.

Leyden was only a half point yard from a touchdown in the third period when the Eagles fumbled, losing the ball. The Bisons sparked back with a punt out of the end zone and the recovery of another fumble. Passes, runs and a penalty on Leyden brought Bensenville to the Leyden three.

Graumann scored around right end for a touchdown. Leyden opened its pass attack in the fourth quarter, but failed to tally.

Frosh Gridders Have 3 Games At Arlington

Freshmen football was slated to be officially under way Wednesday of this week with Crystal Lake in town. Next games are Monday, September 27, at Maine and Thursday, September 30, at Palatine.

The boys could have used another week of workouts before opening the season. Switching to the single wing has required more time and effort on the part of both boys and coaches.

The squad apears green thus far, as can be expected, but no injuries had appeared through Monday of this week, a good sign. There isn't much size in this year's group, with only one boy, Bill Doering, a six footer tipping the scales at 250. He'll be seen at tackle, of course.

EXPECTED starters for Wednesday's game included Roger Farley and Donne Carstens at ends, Bill Doering and Jim Schultz at tackles, and Floyd Nolte and Wayne Rydberg at guards. At center is Greg Rose.

In the backfields are Dennis Thill at quarterback, Don Deeke and Ed Kelly at the halves, plus Jack Weber at fullback.

Bison Sophs Lose To Leyden Rally, 19-12

by MAX ZOLLNER

After having controlled action the entire first half, the Bensenville frosh-sophs went down to a 19-12 defeat at the hands of Leyden's frosh Saturday night under the lights on the Bisons' field.

First blood was drawn by the locals in the first quarter when Wayne Langguth of Bensenville blocked an attempted punt by Leyden to start the ball rolling. Bob Fritz scooped up the ball for Coach Paul Henry's squad and ran for the goal line.

Leyden retaliated, however, with a TD the same quarter with Chavis carrying the ball.

IN THE LAST minute of the first half Bensenville scored again. This time the scoring effort was sparked by the young Bisons' Jerry Bowe when he took the ball around left end for 15 yards. Lars Henrichson then plunged over for the tally, making it 12-6 at halftime.

Leyden came out strong the second half, notching TD's in both third and fourth quarters. Santo drove through the locals' line for a tally in the third period, then snagged a pass from Gagne for the conversion

The sophomore Eagles again tallied in the final quarter when Mariono broke through to score.

First Gymnastics Call At Arlington Heights

Coach Hughes issued his call with an eye to getting through all of the red tape by Monday, including permit cards, pysicals, etc., when the team can start workouts.

Superior Line Pays Off In 25-6 Win For Palatine At Libertyville

Palatine made an auspicious start on their 1954 football season Saturday as they trounced a highly rated Libertyville eleven 25-6 on the losers' own grounds. Superior line play both on defense and offense was the big factor in the Pirates' success. The big Palatine line had the edge both in size and aggressiveness.

Long runs by Alan Eck featured Palatine's attack. The Northwest 440 champ scored on the first play of the second half from 59 yards out on a reverse and had another jaunt of over 20 yards. Palatine scored in the opening quarter on a march from their own 46 yard line featured by a 10 yard pass from Lorden to McClung and a 27 yard run by Eck. Jim Penning scored on a nine yard plunge. Penalties kept Palatine from any sustained drives in the second period. The Pirates' only first down of the quarter was a 25 yard pass from Ray Lorden to Alan Eck.

ON THE FIRST PLAY of the second half after the kickoff, Eck ran 59 yards to score with some clever side stepping to get himself in the clear. Libertyville marched 40 yards to score late in the third period with Jack Graham going over from the one yard stripe on fourth down.

Early in the fourth period, Lorden threw a 37 yard pass to Bruce McClung who made a fine catch to set up another score. From the three yard line Lorden made one yard and then Doug Hildebrandt plunged over. A few minutes later Libertyville tried a screen pass from the Palatine 40 which was intercepted by Dave Nesset and run back for the fourth touchdown. Dave Cornwell converted.

Coach Charley Feutz used between 30 and 35 players in the game and strong reserve strength was in evidence both in the line and backfield.

IT WAS THE BEST performance a Palatine team has ever shown in a season opener against major opposition. Palatine had a new gain of 243 yards from scrimmage to Libertyville's 76.

Local Gridders Look Good At DeKalb

Approximately 40 Northern Illinois State gridders will be named to the traveling roster for the Wheaton college football game Saturday, September 25.

Although Coach George "Chick" Evans will not make his final selections until late in the week, a considerable number of prospects seem certain to make the trip.

A trio of transfer students have looked potent, including Tom Skubich of Hinsdale, who has run 64 yards in scrimmage.

Outstanding performances in the line have been turned in by guard Bob Schulze of Arlington Heights and Joe Moser, an end from Northbrook.

Working well at end has been Frank Deigl of Arlington Heights and freshman Joe Reedy of Elmhurst.

Lack Of Blocking Stops Cards Against Leyden Twice, 6-0

Lack of blocking, both at the line of scrimmage and downfield, brought a 6-0 defeat of Arlington Heights high school gridders by Leyden Firday night with a very large crowd of fans out to witness the fracas under the lights.

In addition, a lack of desire to "give something extra" appeared to have the Cardinals mired in the grass, a big disappointment to Heights grid coaches, from the varsity level clear through the frosh ranks

All of this meant a solid week of "nothing but fundamentals" in preparation for the West Suburban conference opener Friday night at home against Maine

ENTHUSIASM generated among students at Arlington was frosted considerably Friday night as the Heights gridders couldn't follow through on scoring opportunities due to fumbleitis and lack of blocking. Time after time missed blocks, and many times no attempts at blocking, killed Arlington's chances against Leyden.

The Eagles took advantage of a Heights fumble on the Franklin Park 23 and, on the second play, a 78 yard run brought in the only TD of the game, a score good enough to bring victory.

THE CARDINALS kicked off, held Leyden, then started from their own 35, advancing to the Leyden 23. With first and ten, Heights fumbled. From then on the blocking disappeared.

Only other time the Cardinals seriously threatened they were stopped on the six yard line on the fourth down. Leyden came within the Heights 20 three times, but was held once, fumbled once, and penalized out of danger when a touchdown was called back for clipping

THE FROSH-SOPH preliminary was just a case of Arlington playing Leyden on equal terms three quarters, but then tiring in the fourth to permit the visitors to tally the one touchdown necessary to cop the contest, 6-0.

With four minutes to go Leyden suddenly started sliching through the center of the line, left and right, starting at midfield. Final scoring play was an eight yard run which counted, with the attempted conversion by running failing.

Arlington reached within the Leyden 20 only once, the ten yard stripe just as the first half ended. Dan Vittum attempted a field goal, but failed.

THE LOCALS couldn't seem to get their offense rolling, though passes from Jacobsen to Brown looked good. Outstanding ground gainer was Ed Meinken for Heights on two occasions. Arlington defense was good until the fourth period.

Starters included Dan Vittum and Paul Brown at ends, Jim Hoffman and Carl Klehm at tackles, Dean Skadberg and Larry Weber at guards, and Don Plank at center. In the backfield it was Tom Jacobsen, John Brownell, Ashley Haase and Ed Meinken.

Other boys seeing considerable action included tackles Charles Petersen, Bill Hogate and Ray Horcher, guards Tony Hansen and Dan Jordan, center Dave Curtis, and back Dick Fischer.

Palatine Frosh-Sophs Lose To Barrington

Palatine's frosh-soph football team lost to Barrington Saturday, 6-0, but the tight game and low score was a jolt to the Broncho sophs who were rated one of the best second year teams the school has had. For the most part neither team got closer than the opponents' 40 yard line.

Barrington scored on the first play of the second half on a 60 yard run off tackle. Palatine had a chance to tie the score when Lundgren blocked a punt and fell on it on the Barrington 15 yard line. Both teams were very tough on defense and neither very effective as far as offense was concerned. Hummel, Lundgren, and Peterson played an outstanding game for Palatine.

Boys who played for Palatine were Bob Breyer and Jim Eldridge, ends; Bob Hummel and Dennis Lundgren, tackles; Michael Millay and Karl Schwenk, guards; Douglas Schubert, center; Michael Lynch and Dave Shaw, halfbacks Douglas Peterson, fullback; and Dave McClung, quarterback. Others who played were John Perham, John Gerling, Bob Veeck, and Jordan Hodgson.

Next frosh-soph game is with Ela-Vernon at Lake Zurich on Monday, September 27.

Badger-Illini Game A Complete Sellout

Illinois' homecoming game with Wisconsin in Memorial Stadium November 13 is a complete sellout, George Legg, ticket manager has announced.

Tickets are still available for four other home games, Penn State September 25, Ohio State October 9, Syracuse October 23, and Northwestern November 20.

Ohio State tickets are going fast, however, Legg pointed out, and he anticipates a sellout before the game is played.

Northwest League Teams Split Non-Conference Games

Lars Henrichson, Bensenville frosh-soph quarterback, carries the ball against the Leyden frosh Saturday night, but didn't get very far this time. He is shown picking up a few yards as right halfback Jerry Winard gets ready to stop him.

Northwest conference teams split even in non-conference games last week end with Glenbrook, Palatine, Antioch and Bensenville, beating Lake Forest, Libertyville, Wilmot, Wisconsin and Leyden J.V respectively while Wauconda, Ela-Vernon, Grant, and Grayslake dropped decisions to Maryville, Oswego, Zion-Benton and Warren.

Glenbrook stamped themselves as the next Northwest champs with an impressive 20-0 over a Lake Forest team which every North Suburban coach had picked as the strongest in the league. The Glenbrook Spartans scored in the opening quarter when Bob Boyd took a lateral from Dave Corso and ran 40 yards. In the third period, Corso scored on a short plunge and in the final period Al Mackie went over from the three yard line at the end of a long march. Bob Boyd converted the extra point following the first two touchdowns.

ANTIOCH, figured as a strong contender and second place winner in 1953, defeated a strong Wilmot, Wisconsin team 7-0 last Friday night. In an evenly played game the scoring break came when an Antioch guard, Alan Masopust, broke through and hit the Wilmot quarterback so hard the ball flew up into the air and was snagged by Harry Lindgren, Antioch end, who ran 30 yards for the score.

Ela-Vernon lost to Oswego 27-6 in a closer game than the score would indicate. Two fumbles early in the game inside their own 20 yard line were costly for the Ela-Bears as the visitors capitalized on both for touchdowns. Ela scored in the third period on a 44 yard pass play from Bob Bodine to Ken Stanciu. Oswego had a touchdown in each quarter. Ela had seven first downs to Oswego's five but was outgained 221 yards to 139.

GRAYSLAKE HELD Warren on even terms Saturday, but the Blue Devils broke loose in the final quarter for two tallies and a 12-0 victory. A fumbled punt by Grayslake on their own 10 yard line set up Warren's first score with Richardson going over from the six yard stripe. A little later Richardson broke loose for a 22 yard touchdown run. Grayslake frosh-sophs beat Grant 25-0 in the preliminary.

Wauconda dropped a 12-0 decision to a strong Maryville team from Des Plaines to spoil the Bulldogs' gridiron opener while Grant's green eleven was downed 22-0 at Zion-Benton Saturday night. Bensenville, hopeful of a better season this year, gained confidence thru a 19-12 victory over the Leyden JV team. Leyden frosh took the measure of the Bison sophs 19-13.

PALATINE LOOMED as the dark horse of the coming campaign with a convincing demonstration of speed and power as they drubbed the Libertyville Wildcats in their own lair Saturday afternoon 25-6.

'Most Potent' Line For Illini VS. Penn State

Illinois opens its 65th season of intercollegiate football at 1:30 p. m. (CDT) Saturday, opposing tough Penn State in Memorial Stadium.

Coach Ray Eliot, beginning his thirteenth year, has assembled a probable starting lineup which includes only three regulars from the 1953 Big Ten championship team. Four others were lettermen last year, two are returning squad members, and two are sophomores.

THE ILLINI were unimpressive in a dress rehearsal game scrimmage Saturday, and Eliot shuffled his lineup in rather wholesale fashion and decreed more hard work for the squad through Wednesday. Wally Vernasco replaced Don Tate at right guard in Monday's workout, and Dean Renn and Charlie Butler were nominated as probable starters after sharing first-team rating at end with Herb Badel and Steve Nosek. There also were several additional changes which did not affect the first team.

Saturday's probable starting lineup includes four seniors, five juniors, and two sophomores. Newcomers are Butler and halfback Abe Woodson, both of whom have been impressive in fall workouts. Other first team members: Renn, left end; Roger Wolf and Floyd McAfee, tackles; Captain Jan Smid and Vernasco, guards; Jack Chamblin, center; Em Lindbeck, quarterback; J. C. Caroline, left halfback; and "Mickey" Bates, fullback.

CAROLINE, Bates, and Smid were starters last season. Other first team members are relatively inexperienced.

Eliot's 1954 line is slightly heavier, but lacks overall speed of the 1953 unit. The backfield, led by All-American Caroline, shapes up as one of the most potent in the Big Ten.

Sanction Match For Airedales October 3

Airedale terrier club of Illinois will hold a sanction match for trimmed and untrimmed airdales at the home of Dr. Justin Fleischmann, Ela road, Palatine, Sunday, October 3. Harold Florscheim, noted airedale fancier, will be the judge.

Ribbons will be awarded dogs and puppies in all classes. This is an invitation for those who have airedales as pets to come along and meet other fanciers of the breed. Refreshments will be served with a nominal entry fee charged.

There are no points to be given, but the show will be an excellent opportunity for airedale owners to enter the show ring.

34-Year-Old Catcher Jim Hegan One Of Keys Of Indians' Success

A major league player, at or near 35, starts looking for the exits. But for Jim Hegan, the durable catcher of the Cleveland Indians, this year promises to be remembered as one of the brightest in his career. Jim is 34.

Back in May, a correspondent of The Sporting News was talking to Phil Rizzuto of the Yankees, about the Indians. Rizzuto called the Clevelanders a much improved club, much more confident. He singled out Hegan for particular mention. "He looks different," The Scooter said, "so confident, and he's stinging the ball."

THE SCOOTER seems to have been right. Hegan has made a big difference in the Indians. He has imporved with age. He's the oldest regular catcher in the American League, the only active receiver who has caught 100 games or more for eight successive years.

Talking to Hegan, you sense the spirit in him. "I feel more like 22 than 34," he says. "I have felt good all year." In previous years, he suffered from a bad back, but last winter the condition cleared. He never has been too strong at the plate, hitting only .217 last year and .225 the year before. His best year so far as batting averages is concerned was in 1948 when he hit .258. He's been around .239 this season. But while he's not breaking records as a hitter, he stands up at the plate like a new man and provides the lower half of the batting order with a punch.

HEGAN HAS BEEN called a "picture book catcher." One feminine fan says she goes to the games just to watch him catch fly balls, because he does it with such ease and grace. His own manager, Al Lopez, says Jim seems to have a radar sense in judging fly balls and would have been a great outfielder.

In personality, he's one of the most popular players ever to put on a Cleveland uniform. His teammates cheer him whenever he goes to bat, no matter how sickening the slump he is in. As for his handling of pitchers, he of course is the quarterback of the top pitching staff in baseball. And the pitchers are eager to share their honors with him. As Early Wynn put it—"It gives a pitcher so much confidence to see big Jim behind the plate. When Hegan catches I'm not afraid to throw a knuckleball with the winning run on third. No matter how bad the pitch is, Jim gets it."

THE OTHERS in Cleveland's Big Four agree. Bob Lemon says he never shakes off a Hegan signal. "I did once," he said, "and the guy hit one out of the park. I decided to let Hegan take the responsibility of calling them from then on."

Even the umpires have a good word for Jim. He's big—six feet two—but stays low on his haunches to give the umpires a perfect view of each pitch. "If we miss a pitch behind Hegan," said Umpire Hank Soar, "it's our own fault. He never jumps up at the last instant to block the umpire's view. Some catchers make it tough on an umpire but not Jim. He's perfect."

Hegan believes the 1954 Cleveland club is better than the 1948 club which won the pennant. The hitters were better, then, he says, but this year the pitching is tops

Six Men Up, Three Outs, But Only One Official Time At The Plate

Six men up in one inning, but only one official time at bat That happened to the Pirates in a game against the Cubs recently. As related by The Sporting News, the first two Pirates walked, and so weren't charged with being at bat.

The next man hit a sacrifice fly and that doesn't count either as an official at bat. The fourth man walked, and the fifth man also hit a sacrifice fly The sixth man up hit into a forceout to end the inning. He was the only man actually charged with a turn at bat.

Of all the low-priced cars —

FORD IS FIRST

WITH WHAT YOU WANT MOST

V-8 POWER
—for smoothest, most responsive "Go"

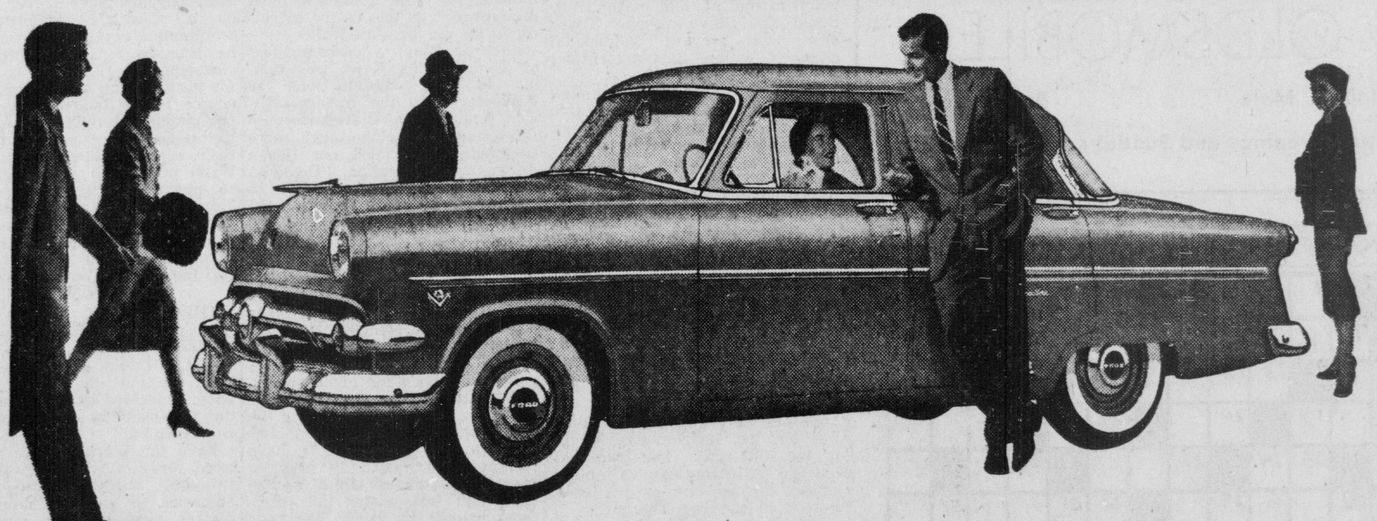
Ford is the only car in its field to offer V-8 power! 130-h.p. Y-block, low-friction design gives you sensationally smooth, responsive "Go" in all driving ranges, wrings all the power from every drop of gas.

BALL-JOINT SUSPENSION
—greatest chassis advance in 20 years

Ford alone among the low-priced cars has Ball-Joint Front Suspension. All riding and handling is consistently easier, and that "new car feel" lasts longer. Lubrication points are reduced from 16 to 4.

TREND-SETTING STYLE
—It sets a pattern for the industry

Only Ford in the low-price field has smooth-lined styling that will stay in style for years to come. And every Ford has upholstery which is color-blended with interior trim and exterior body color.



WIDE CHOICE
—the widest in the industry

You may choose from 3 lines . . . 28 models. This wide selection includes the world's favorite convertible . . . and the greatest line of station wagons in the industry. You have your choice of V-8 or Six.

ALL THE POWER ASSISTS
—choose just the ones you want

Ford offers the most advanced power assists in its field . . . the kind you'd expect in higher-priced cars. There's Power Steering, Power Brakes, Power Windows (front and rear) and a 4-Way Power Seat.

HIGHEST RESALE VALUE
—used car prices prove it

Analysis of used car prices shows that Ford returns a higher proportion of its original cost at resale than any other car in the low-price field. It's another big reason why it pays to own a Ford!

Presenting The Younger Generation

Brothers

Pictured first are Eugene and Bruce Kelly, sons of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Kelly of 722 E Euclid, Arlington Heights.

Seven-year-old Eugene has dark brown hair and brown eyes. He attends second grade at the North school.

Playing cowboys and riding his bicycle are two of this lad's favorite outdoor activities, while indoors he likes to build and make things. Eugene also loves to play with his train set.

His younger brother, five-year-old Bruce, has light brown hair and hazel eyes. Bruce loves to tag after his older brother and enjoys many of the same activities. Both boys attend Sunday school at the First Methodist church.

Bruce started kindergarten this year at the North school. This youngster likes to model with clay, color and listen to records on his phonograph, as well as play with trains.

The boys' grandparents are Mr and Mrs. August Hennings of Arlington Heights and Mr. and Mrs. Michael J. Kelly of Sharpsville, Pa.

Sister and Brother

Claudia and Richard Fiore, children of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Fiore of 31 S. Greenwood, Palatine, are pictured next. Both have dark brown hai and brown eyes.

Four-year-old Claudia likes to play make-believe, and enjoys coloring, looking through books, playing records on her phonograph and playing with dolls.

Outdoors this young lady has fun playing on her swings, glider and in the sand box. She also likes to ride her tricycle. Claudia is looking forward to starting dancing school this fall.

Her little brother, Richard, will be two years old November 12. He loves to play with Claudia and have her pull him in the wagon. He also enjoys the swings and sand box.

Indoors Richard likes to play with mechanical toys and pull toys, and he likes to model with clay and play ball. He is just beginning to demonstrate an interest in books.

Modern Etiquette

by ROBERTA LEE

Q. Is it proper always to seat a woman at a table to the right of her male companion?

A. When practical, yes. The few definite rules about this include the seating of a guest of honor on the right of the host or hostess or chairman, and the military rule by which the senior officer walks as well as sits on his junior's right.

Q. I am always uncertain about the lettuce on which a salad is served. Is it really proper to eat this?

A. It is quite all right to eat this. The lettuce is as much a part of the salad as any other of the ingredients.

Q. What jewels, if any, should the bride wear for her wedding ceremony?

A. Only the gift from her bridegroom.

Q. Are there any special occasions when a man precedes the woman whom he is accompanying?

A. Yes — when the way is uncertain or dangerous, such as when pushing their way through a boisterous crowd. He also precedes her when alighting from a vehicle so that he can better assist her in alighting.

Q. When someone to whom one has been introduced takes leave of one by saying, "I am very glad to have met you," what is an appropriate reply?

A. "Thank you," or, "Thank you very much," or, "I've enjoyed meeting you."

Q. Is it necessary that a guest unfold his napkin entirely when placing it in his lap?

A. This is neither necessary nor proper. It should be only half unfolded.

Q. When spaghetti is served Italian style, how should it be eaten?

A. It is much better for the average person to break it with the side of the fork than to attempt to copy the Italians' skillful manner of eating it. This may save you both embarrassment and laundry.

Q. Is a man obligated to give up his seat in a bus to some woman he knows?

A. While men no longer give up their seats in public conveyances indiscriminately to women, it still is considered the polite thing for them to extend this courtesy to women they know well.

Q. Is it all right for a bride to have a married woman act as one of her bridesmaids?

A. This is quite often done, and is quite all right.

Q. Is it correct to send invitations to a church wedding to business and social friends, without including invitations to the reception? Does the receipt of an invitation to the church only place the aforementioned persons under any obligation to send gifts? If so, how ma one invite such friends to the church without obligating them?

A. If one wishes to limit the number of guests at a wedding reception, it is perfectly proper to mail out church invitations only to certain acquaintances and business friends, and to include reception invitations to more intimate friends and relatives of both families. There is no way in which you can politely and tactfully inform your friends whether or not they are "obligated" to send gifts. Recipients of invitations to the church only are in no way required to send gifts, although they may do so if they really wish. Etiquette and custom do require, however, that recipients of invitations to the reception send gifts.

They Manufacture Crime, Romance To Suit Readers

by CHUCK HAYES

Echoing their motto, "Crime does not pay — enough," the midwest Mystery Writers of America met in Chicago last week for their September ghoul-acquainted session.

A reporter was invited to visit the meeting and find out what makes mystery writers "tick."

"Oh, it's horrible to sit around and be morbid," sighed Polly MacNamara, who writes for Modern Detective magazine, Hearst syndicate, and Pictorial Review. "But, I must write of murders rather than of romance because my murders pay me more."

Where does the author of such thrillers as, "Your Son Is My Price" get her plot ideas?

"From persons I meet," chuckled the mild-mannered Miss MacNamara, who looked more like a meek grandmother than a mystery writer. "I analyze each person to determine what kind of crime he or she would commit. If I decide on murder, for example, I ask my self if it would be choking, poisoning, shooting, or hanging. Then I write my story."

She smiled and added, "It's all very morbid."

Her most popular stories?

"The bloodiest."

One of America's most successful mystery and pulp writers is Ruth McCaslin, who earns $12,000 a year from her writing adventures.

"I started out writing love poems," she laughted, "and graduated to mysteries. Now I spend most of my time writing confession stories."

A REGULAR contributor to True Confessions magazine and other such publications, she is continually "amazed at the number of readers who think such stories are true."

"I get my ideas from love-lorn columns, newspaper stories, and the experiences I had as personnel director for Kresge's. Although the incidents I write about are either real, or could be real, the story as I write it is fictional.

Her success formula for confession stories: "Sin . . . suffer . . . and repent."

A mystery writer who leads a "double life" is William Mason, British Counsul in Chicago. He came here five months ago from Africa, where he found many ideas for some of the 12 novels he has had published in England.

"I WRITE AS A HOBBY," Mason explained. "It relaxes me. At least, I tell myself that because I can't make any money at it, and I have to have some reason for writing!"

The diplomat, who writes under the name of Robert Mason, admitted he hadn't done any writing since coming to Chicago.

"I do all my writing from persons and places I know. I can't write a novel now because it will be full of Chicago persons and places. It wouldn't help foreign relations, you know!"

Mr. Mason deviated from his topic long enough to assure Paddock readers that:

1- Queen Elizabeth is in all probability expecting another baby; and

2- That Princess Margaret will marry Capt. Townsend when she is 25 years of age.

QUITE CONTRARY

BY MARY

Heh, heh, heh. This statement has gestures that must go with it. Long black mustachios should be twirled and an evil leer should adorn the face that gives with the laugh. The reason for the snicker is that the high school is making something work that the village couldn't manage.

The high school, bursting at the seams, has inaugurated one way stairways. Yup, the traffic jams were so terrific that steps had to be taken and were taken. According to our spies, the system is working out just fine with jams unjamming and the young able once more to get to classes on time. We feel that we are to be permitted to laugh up our three quarter length sleeve as we long carried on a one woman campaign for one way streets.

As a housewife and a cook we are now wishing that someone would invent a new vegetable. After one has fixed peas, beans, carrots, brussel sprouts, what? Then one starts the whole cycle over again. We are bored with the routine. Next week we shall serve them in inverted order just to shock the family.

Last Friday we finally managed to get in on the last half of the first football game of the season. We still maintain that we love high school football above all others. We mean that we would love it if it were not for the older kibitzers. A friend of ours was sitting up in the stands and had the whole evening spoiled for her by the comments of a second guesser in back. He seemed to be laboring under the illusion that he was supposed to be watching the Chicago Bears. Every play that was made displeased him because it didn't turn out to be a touchdown. He kept up a running patter on the ineptitude of the youthful players and the overwhelming stupidity of the coach.

Someone should take him aside and tell him the facts of life. The boys who play on a high school team are far from fully grown. Some of them are playing for the first time and they are certainly not to be mistaken for Red Granges or Bronko Nagurskis. The last two mentioned are just a wee bit overage for high school play. But, the boys who do make up the teams in high school have all the will to win, all the earnestness, and all of the spirit that may be lacking in professional play. The kids are playing for the old school and don't forget it. We think they are cute.

Of course, it has long been thought by the people who know us best that we are a case of arrested development. And, at that, they may be right.

THE MAILMAN'S CORNER

BY LELAND ELLIS TRUXELL

One of the friendliest and best liked persons I know is a little woman slightly over four feet tall with a heart as big as the moon. She is the living exemplification of what a cooperative, friendly personality can do to make friends and influence people.

You can not win friends with money or with promises, but you can win them by love and helpfulness. People shy away with good reason from the man or woman who wants all of the fun and no responsibility. More than one marriage has been broken because one or the other of the partners refuses to cooperate. More than one real friendship has petered out—because one or the other party always "Lets George do it."

YOU CAN NOT make friends by letting other people serve you, doing nothing in return. You are not so wonderful, so deserving of praise and glory that you can sit on the sidelines and twiddle your thumbs while others work. If you shirk at work, you will win the enmity of your employer and your fellow workmen; if you shirk at home, you will lose the respect of your partner or your parents; and no matter how much you may fuss, storm and fume, you cannot force others to respect or love you. The best you can do is build up within yourself a great and growing self pity.

You can grow to hate people, to feel they pick on you, that they don't love you. You can become bitter, spiteful, resentful of others, and form a habit of trying to get what you want out of people through falsehood, treachery and double dealing. That won't make you happy. It will make you more miserable and unhappy. The older you grow, the more miserable and abused you will feel, or the more hateful and bitter you will become.

BUT WHAT a different world it is when you pitch in and do your share; when you assume with your partner the effort to get ahead, work with him or her to establish a home; when you work with others instead of expecting them to do your work, it is a fine, beautiful world of friends, happiness, joy! You know you belong because others seek your friendship, your partner shares his or her life with you. You're not on the outside any more, no longer a lone wolf, but one of the family, one of the gang at the office, one of the bunch among your friends. Self pity, selfishness, lonesomeness, bitterness, spitefulness all pass away, cleansed by new habits of helpfulness, cooperation, kindness, consideration of others.

How true the words of St. Francis: "It is by giving that we receive, by loving that we are loved!"

Happenings 10, 20, 30, 40, And 50 Years Ago This Week

Fifty Years Ago

September 23, 1904

The following pupils at Arlington Heights school have volunteered to exterminate burdocks, thistles and other noxious weeds: John Nehls, Frank Meyer, Earl Watson, Martin Fehlman, Harry Fairchild, Pat Davis, Jennie Schiffman, Della Scharringhausen, Jessie Wayman, Esther Stangor, John Taylor, Elmer Crane, Martin Jahn, Mabel Wilke and John Kastning.

Alice M. Batten, Bloomingdale, was married to Albert Sievert, Chicago, in her mother's home September 15. They will live in a newly furnished home in Chicago.

The funniest thing in Roselle last Saturday night was the big sign on J. C. Hattendorf's saloon. Since when and for how long has he changed his politics?

Joe Belmor, Phillip Spengler and Tony Behm of Wheeling got lost the other day while hunting. They bagged one rabbit.

Deaths this week: Mrs. Mary (Nee Clipfell) Anderson, Arlington Heights, died September 22 in the home of a relative at the age of 78 years . . . Mrs. Nicholas Hinsberger Jr. (Katherine O'Connel), Buffalo Grove, at the age of 26 and only eight months after her marriage.

Forty Years Ago

September 25, 1914

Albert E. Busse, second son of County Commissioner William Busse, was married to Emma Schaeffer in ceremonies performed by the Rev. J.E. Mueller, brother-in-law of the groom, September 20 in St. Paul's Lutheran church, Mount Prospect.

The Palatine fair and carnival turned out to be a big success with praise even coming from the rival Lake and DuPage county contingents present.

The gas company has finished laying pipe on Churchville road and the farmers outside Bensenville will soon have good lights.

Cora Frass, 22-year old Roselle girl, died after an extended illness September 17.

Thirty Years Ago

Alice Olhaber, daughter of Mrs. August Olhaber, Bartlett, became the bride of Herbert E. Schnadt Saturday afternoon. The son of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Schnadt, he is also from Bartlett.

P. T. Tiedeman, long-time Bensenville business man, recalls that he cast his first vote in a presidential election for Abraham Lincoln at the old Tremont hotel in Chicago in 1860. Tredeman, although now 92, is still active in his store.

Anna Kleinsmith, daughter of Mrs. Fred Kleinsmith, was united in marriage with Fred L. Rohde in Palatine's St. Paul's church Saturday.

Plans are underway for two movie houses in Arlington Heights. Lots being considered are the one on Vail st. adjoining the Lotus studio and the McCune property at Evergreen ave. and Minor st.

Twenty Years Ago

September 21, 1934

John Proctor, 81-year old Arlington Heights pioneer who often recalled trading with Indians when a youth, died Sunday in a Chicago hospital after a week's illness. He lived at one location in the village all of his life having been born there in a log cabin in 1853.

Mrs. Madonna Noller, 36, Bensenville, died following two operations September 12.

An order cutting the authorized membership of the DuPage county board from 36 to 25 from the attorney general this week made gamblers out of those on the group. They will draw straws to determine the names of those who'll resign.

Walter L. Nelson, Palatine, married Mary L. Warburton September 19 and they plan to move into a home south of Palatine.

The construction of a new highway, to be called route 53, is being held up until arrangements for the acquisition of remaining adjacent property as right-of-way can be completed by the state.

More Pictures

It seems to me that when a person buys a copy of the Palatine Enterprise, he expects to find news about the town of Palatine. But lo, what does he read? Activities of Arlington Heights. Especially of the high school there.

More people, particularly students of Palatine high, have commented about having too many pictures of the Heights high school and not having enough of our PTHS. Their pictures are all right for the Arlington Herald, but let's have more pictures of the sports events and plays, etc., at Palatine high.

With The Sighted

In the September 16 issue of the Arlington Heights Herald an article appeared stating that my daughter, Cheryl was attending the Braille Classroom in Wheeling. I would like to advise you that beginning October 1, she will attend the Arlington nursery school, with sighted children.

Although the laws of the state of Illinois do provide for education of the blind in local schools from three years through eighteen years, the parents of the blind feel it would work an undue hardship on Miss June Rose Brown, the blind students now attending Wheeling, and even the school, if the three, four and five year olds were put into the same room with the students in grades 1 through 8. Can you imagine how much the six, eight and ten year olds might learn with our three year olds storming about?

Also, the state laws provide that three year olds receive in their classroom supervised play, in kindergarten getting a smattering of braille with play, and then in the first grade the "regular" school program would be followed.

Cheryl will receive supervised play with her sighted friends here in Arlington. We do not know now if she will attend kindergarten in Arlington or at Wheeling.

Good Architect

Two weeks ago this newspaper carried a front page article and illustration of the proposed new Methodist church for Arlington Heights. In the article I could find no mention of the architect who created this beautiful design.

Credit should be given to Charles B. Rowe, architect of Park Ridge, for the design of a building that will be a pleasure to look at for many years to come.

Enjoys Paper

I enjoy your paper from the editorials to the last want-ad. I want to thank you for your immediate and heart-warming stand for the Girl Scout leaders and the girls, themselves. The mistakes made by the heads of the organization landed in our laps. Any vote of confidence in us, as leaders, meant a great deal.

An Answer

From his remarks at the last Arlington Heights village board meeting and his articles in the Fence Post, Mr. Rehfeldt is not aware of his responsibilities as a trustee, and the fact that Illinois State law sets forth methods of procedure which governing bodies should follow.

For example, the matter of municipal garbage disposal which is set forth in Chapter 23, section 40 of the Illinois State Statute and specifically states the governing body shall have the authority to handle the matter if it sees fit.

Mr. Rehfeldt is apparently not aware that the matter of a north side fire house has to come before the voters by means of a referendum, as set forth in chapter 24, sec. 33.1 of Illinois State Statutes. Further, he was in error when he stated members of this board did not want to submit this proposition to the voters. No board member has ever had any other idea in mind, nor can we by law.

The appointment of the village manager is also set forth in Illinois law and was done according to state statutes.

Mr. Rehfeldt stated we are planning a municipal garage. Of this the board members do not know to what he refers, as at no time has there been any discussion of building a municipal garage for public parking. If he means the erection of a storage shed for the protection of presently owned machinery and equipment, it only makes good business sense to protect such equipment, but that matter will be handled in accordance with means prescribed by law when the matter is considered.

Specifically, the matter at hand to which the trustee Mr. Rehfeldt, objected was parking meters. Again, Illinois State Statute chapter 24, sec. 52.1 provides, "Any municipality is authorized to acquire by purchase or otherwise, own, manage, control, erect, maintain, and operate parking meters to the regulation, control, and parking of motor vehicles as the corporate authorities may from time to time find the necessity therefore exists, providing that it shall be submitted to and receive approval of the plan commission before establishing any parking facilities. (The Plan Commission acted on March 1, 1954). It may charge for the use thereof. It may enter into contracts with the objects and purpose of this article.

"Corporate authorities of any municipality are hereby granted authority to make all reasonable rules and regulations not in conflict with the laws of Illinois, or ordinances of the municipality regarding the management and control and use of any such parking facilities."

Instead of "violating the public rights of the people," as Mr. Rehfeldt states, we feel parking meters will: 1. Speed the parking turnover providing more parking space; 2. Provide revenue for the purchase of off the street parking lots.

Thus, instead of violating public rights, it spreads the benefits of additional parking to all the taxpayers of Arlington Heights instead of restricting parking to a few. Members of the parking committee have discussed the Arlington Heights parking and traffic problem with the best traffic experts and legal minds in the State of Illinois, and these experts have suggested the procedure we are now following.

The Arlington Heights plan commission has been working on this problem since last fall. It held a number of open hearings on this matter, to which everyone was invited. A poll was taken among the business men. In all instances an overwhelming majority favored going ahead on this undertaking and the plan commission so recommended. The trustees are only fulfilling the duties for which they were elected when they take action.

At no time during the months of discussion has Mr. Rehfeldt ever expressed any opposition to parking meters to any of the board members prior to the prepared statement of September 7, 1954 to the press. Incidentally, at no time has he made any suggestions to the board, or any committee, constructive or otherwise, for a solution to our parking problem.

As for Mr. Rehfeldt's article in the Fence Post suggesting a solution to the parking problem, the method suggested is not legal according to Illinois State law. If it were legal, how would he recommend the purchase of lots be financed?

We feel the taxpayers should know the facts concerning problems receiving official consideration.

Word From Virginia

This is to say "hello" to all of our Arlington Heights friends back home, and say, "We miss seeing you." We do enjoy farm life in Virginia.

We'd like to share our fine experience with you. Yesterday, September 17, was the day of our County Fair. Doug Jr. and Lois each entered a purebred Guernsey heifer in the competition open to 4-H and FFA members county wide. They tied for first place, receiving top honors. At the grand championship judging, Doug's yearling, the first calf to be born on our farm, a year ago today, received the grand championship award.

The Fluvanna Farm Bureau donated a purebred dairy heifer to the prize winner. In turn, to reciprocate, a heifer of this calf will be presented to some 4-H or FFA member competing in the future.

Our Side Of It

I was greatly surprised to see mention of the La Grange- Mt. Prospect Little League game in Mac Says of September 16.

To begin with, the supposed facts you mentioned were misconstrued. In defense of the umpire, who incidentally we didn't know and had never seen before, he did not call the batter out at home plate until after we had another ball put into play and our catcher stepped on home plate.

His actions up to this moment were very legal. He stood behind home plate without indicating anything unusual. We had trouble getting a ball back into play because La Grange insisted on the batter getting the ball he had hit over the fence. The game was delayed for at least 10 minutes while the La Grange fans put on one of the worst demonstrations for their boys that I have seen in my four years of association with these boys of 9 to 12.

THE SCORE was tied, 1-1, after Kemp was called out, but the La Grange boys after this "show" put on by their supposedly learned mothers, fathers and friends were beaten.

In my opinion, the LaGrange team, one of the better teams in the tournament was beaten by its own people. I am very proud to say that in this, and all of our games, we also try to stress that the parents of our boys shall try to exhibit the sportsmanship their boys have.

ON THE PLAY at home plate, we thought the plate was missed by a considerable amount. That was the reason we "protested" the run. This thought was also expressed by many people in the stands who were there just to see some good "clean" boys baseball. After our protest the umpire exerted his authority and called the batter out.

In fairness to the Mt. Prospect boys who played on this very fine team I believe you should mention these facts so the impression will not be given that we "stole" the game.

I DON'T KNOW whether La Grange mentioned the fact that after the game they also put on an exhibition for their boys outside of the park revolving around this unpaid umpire who was trying to do his best, and help with teaching these impressionable boys good sportsmanship; spending much time at a thankless job. Also, at the banquet La Grange was also very conspicuous by their absence. Mt. Prospect, which was soundly beaten by Melrose Park 13-0, even though some of us felt we had a better team, was there en masse to wish the champions luck. The only team not present was LaGrange.

If it could only be remembered that Little League baseball is for the boys and not the satisfaction and realization of unfilled dreams of the parents who can't stand to see their faults projected by their boys, there would be less argument about Little League baseball.

Schaumburg Roads

About three years ago we, (that is, some of my neighbors and myself) attended a meeting of Schaumburg township in the hope we could get some help on our roads as they were in a terrible condition. They would not let us state our case at the meeting, but had to wait until the books were closed and they heard our story and informed us that they would not do anything for us. So we came home and applied to the legal aid and they in turn referred us to N. G. P. Krause of Illinois who sent us a copy of the Duties and Powers of the Highway Commission.

We then went back the next year and demanded to be heard. They then compromised with us and said they would keep in repair the roads that we, as private individuals, had put in so we could get in and out.

This year, our roads being full of holes and in a terrible condition, we went to the meeting and asked them to fill up the holes and make our roads passable and they said they would. After waiting all summer and no repairs, I met L. Rediker (Town Clerk) and asked if we had to get a lawyer to have our roads fixed and he informed me that they were under no obligation to do anything for us.

I am now asking if there is anyway to compel them to live up to the law. We are not asking for a lot, but as tax payers we are entitled to some consideration.

John R. Townsend.

'No' Pool

Yipe! I'm stabbed!

Enclosed is my "No" vote on everything pertaining to proposed Park district and swimming pool for our grand village (Mount Prospect). Dire memories of last summer when my home was invaded by three 'outlaws' for a 33-day stay gives pause to my sanctioning any project that might again nullify my water supply and cause embarrassment, inconvenience and expense of leasing hotel quarters for necessary sanitary purposes.

Instead, advance my tax bill (now about four times the figure it was ten years ago) enough to positively guarantee adequate water supply, predicated on a fifty per cent growth in village population the next five years, and, that accomplished, solicit contributions toward the pool. It is a worth-while civic enterprise, assuming that even a half-dozen teen-agers exercise their bed-lam there rather than in drug stores and sundry other places we nerve wracked elder citizens have to visit frequently to attempt making needed purchases.

First thing first. Insure the water supply and, tho a man of modest means, you can have a C-note of mine toward the swimming pool.

JUST AROUND THE CORNER

FROM PATTY McARDLE

Dear Peg:

You know, Peg, it's amazing the things you can do and enjoy doing for someone you're very fond of. If anyone asked me to invite twelve people to luncheon and bridge, I would certainly feel quite put upon—to think that anyone should even suggest I serve that many guests and arrange entertainment for the afternoon, when I have two small children and not one bit of help!

But, just get the idea, all by yourself, that you want to do something special for one of your very dearest friends, because you're fond of her and because she and her little family are moving away soon, and having a dozen girls in for lunch is nothing.

I KOW YOU'VE HEARD ME speak of Kathleen, Peg, and all the good times we have had together, taking our kiddies to the beach, tanning peaches, playing tennis, attending the same club meetings and parties and just having a lot of fun during the four years we've known each other. Well, just about a month ago she and her husband Cal announced that they were moving to Dallas, Texas.

Since none of us even suspected they were contemplating a move, we were all shocked at this news. Actually they, themselves, decided rather suddenly to make the move—by doing so, Cal will be able to change departments, within the company, and do the type of work that he's been wanting to.

WHEN KATHLEEN first told me of their decision, I felt that special lonely feeling you experience only when you say "goodbye" to your dearest friend, and wonder when you'll ever see her again. However, as Kathleen got used to the idea of moving so far away from her family and friends, so did we, and really became as excited as she at the adventure and possibilities of the move. Who knows, they might discover oil on their property, then we could all go down and spend the winter with our wealthy Texan friends!

Naturally, since she was such a good friend, I wanted to do something nice for Kaki before she left, and give her many other friends an opportunity to wish her luck. So, about three weeks ago, she and I got together and made out a list of ten other girls, then I sent out the invitations, and last Tuesday they all gathered here for a farewell party.

Now, dear, I'm certainly not "the hostess with the mostest"; but, to be perfectly truthful, I must admit that the general concensus was that "the hostess" made the "mostest" out of what she had to work with! Our apartment looks its warmest and most inviting under artificial lights and what should the weather for my party be, but a lovely, cloudy, dark gray, so that all the lamps were lighted when the guests arrived.

AS SOON AS ALL the girls were here, I served the fruit punch from my nice cut glass bowl into my lovely dime store cups that look just like antique pressed glass, and listened delightedly to many "ohs" and "ahs" as the guests tasted my concoction. Since I had absolutely everything prepared before the party began, it was a simple task to move the three card tables, all set even to tiny arrangements of black-eyed susans and a sprig of evergreen in the center, into the middle of the room and just carry the food from the kitchen and set it on the drop leaf table.

Oh yes! I must tell you about the flower arrangement I had on this large table. Since the walls of our apartment are dark brown (REALLY dark) and our fabrics mostly in shades of green, brown and rust, flower arrangements in white, green or yellow are most effective. Now, I used from our yard a very common white-blossomed weed, the name of which I don't know, but from a distance it resembles "baby's breath", and sprigs from a shrub that has white berries, and sprays of deep blue-green evergreen, which provided the rich, fan-shaped background. The arrangement was in a large, rather ruffly milk glass vase and (as you surely have guessed by now, ha) it was truly lovely!

THE SANDWICH LOAF, with its layers of chicken salad, tuna fish salad, pimento cheese spread, thinly sliced tomatoes and cucumbers, turned out not only wonderfully moist, but easy to cut and attractive looking on the plates. I had frosted it in white and across the top had squeezed from a paper cone a sort of lattice work in pale yellow. I placed slices of olives in the centers of the criss-crosses (I know you don't understand—but take my word for it, it looked awfully pretty).

With the sandwich loaf I served only molded salad (which stayed molded) of lime jello, pineapple, walnuts and cottage cheese, and potato chips. For dessert, we had pineapple sherbet with Creme de Menthe topping and the cake that I'd ordered from the bakery. As I had suggested, the cake was white with yellow roses and the words "Good Luck Kaki." Perched right in the center of the cake and looking quite garish was a little cow-girl, which I couldn't resist when I saw her in the bakery and thought of Kaki and Texas. I think Kaki was quite surprised when she was given a sweet, white silk blouse trimmed in pink, as a farewell gift from all the girls there.

AFTER LUNCH, we played bridge and Barbara won my first prize—a pair of black velvet lounging slippers and Tinker won the "booby"—a bar of fancy, pink guest soap, in the shape of a crown. Oh! it was so much fun! I didn't even mind all the cleaning up after the girls left. All the time I worked, I just thought of the party and everyone there and how successful it had been. Isn't it terrible to feel so smug about your own party? However, it's not for myself that I'm pleased the day turned out so well, but for Kaki, to whom I wanted to give as lovely a party as I could.

Gosh! I'm going to miss her.

My love,
Patty

Food Chains Cut Costs Of Food Distribution

The cost of the complete food distribution operation has been reduced by chain food stores and super markets from 24½c on the dollar in 1933 to 18½c today, according to a study just completed by the national association of food chains. This has been accomplished in spite of steadily increasing wages and other operating expenses.

A report by Harvard University for 1933 showed that even then food chains had made substantial reductions in the spread between their cost and selling price. In that year, when starting salaries for clerks and truck drivers were one-third of what they are now, the expense of operation, including net earnings, of most food chains amounted to approximately 24c on a dollar of sales.

Hours for employees were substantially reduced and wages on the average were tripled during the intervening period but, in 1953, the total cost of the warehousing, transporting and retailing functions performed by food chains was only 18½c on a dollar of sales. This figure included a profit of about 1c on the sales dollar.

Wishful Thinking

Many a man wishes his ship would come in before he is too old to navigate.

Favorites for Flavor

Summer's end finds many housewives busy over hot ranges, laboring with hot fluids, hot jars and heavy pots, canning fruit and vegetables for their family's winter consumption. And they'll all agree — it's worth the effort and most satisfying to possess shelves well stocked with home-canned food.

One such housewife is Mrs. Kenneth Eeles of 918 N. Yale, Arlington Heights, who is busily putting up jars of tomatoes and chili sauce.

The chili sauce recipe is a special favorite of hers, and she is sharing it with us today.

It is a hot sauce with a sweet, spicy flavor, excellent as an accompaniment for meat, for use as a barbecue sauce or as a basic ingredient in spaghetti sauce And as a by-product of this recipe, you'll have a few jars of homemade tomato juice, too.

Chili Sauce

1 bushel tomatoes
12 large onions
6 sweet red peppers
6 sweet green peppers
8 hot finger peppers
3 to 4 garlic buds
½ pound salt
4 pounds sugar, or more to taste
2 quarts cider vinegar
4 boxes mixed pickling spices

Dip tomatoes into scalding water and peel. Cut into pieces and drain as much juice as possible.

Grind onions, peppers and garlic in a food chopper and add to tomatoes. Add salt, sugar and vinegar.

Tie pickling spices in a bag and place in above mixture Cook.

When sauce is thick enough for canning, add 2 tablespoons celery seed and cook for an additional half hour. Pour into sterlized jars.

To make the tomato juice, place the juice drained from the tomatoes on the stove and bring to a boil. Season with salt, using a scant teaspoon per quart. Pour into sterilized jars.

Shirley Smith Becomes Mrs. Wallace Broeske

First Methodist church of Palatine was the scene of the marriage of Miss Shirley Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis W. Smith, Algonquin rd., Palatine, and Wallace Broeske, son of Mrs. Joseph Horsch, Fox Lake, September 4. Rev. Harold Olson officiated at the 2:30 o'clock ceremony during which Mr. Smith gave his daughter in marriage.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Gilbert served as soloists singing "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer" with Mrs. Edward Scheibach accompanying them at the organ. Baskets of white gladioli decorated the altar.

The bride's gown was of traditional white slipper satin with a lace over net peplum and lace insert at the throat. The full skirt ended in a cathedral train and her fingertip veil was held to her head with a net headpiece. Her bouquet of roses was arranged in a heart shape.

Miss Priscilla Schneider served as maid of honor to the bride wearing a ballerina length gown of pale green net over taffeta with bolero jacket. An identical gown in orchid was worn by the bridesmaid, Miss Maria Scheibach. The attendants wore gloves to match their gowns and carried yellow crysanthemums in their bouquets. Their only jewelry was a gold locket, a gift of the bride.

Frank Webber served as best man and ushers were the bride's brother, Linden Smith, and Kenneth Tobias.

Ice blue silk with white accessories was the choice of the bride's mother while the groom's mother chose an aqua blue dress with dark accessories. Both mothers wore glamellia corsages.

Following the reception, held immediately after the ceremony in the church parlors, Mr. Broeske and his bride left for northern Wisconsin. The couple is now residing at King's Island, Fox Lake, Ill. The groom, a graduate of Arlington Heights high school, is employed by Morton Manufacturing Co., Libertyville.

A block meeting was conducted by George Kitterman and Wing Groves for the residents on Meadow Drive from Campbell st. to St. James place. This meeting was held at the Community church, 2502 Meadow Drive. After a discussion of the Rolling Meadows Home Owners' association and the various problems of the residents, Alan A. Nickels, 2300 Meadow drive was elected block captain, and Luther Gruenbaum of 2315 Meadow drive was elected as alternate. Boy Scouts Boy Scout Troop 69, of which Rolling Meadows boys are members as the Panther Patrol, will attend the Northwestern - Ohio state football game Saturday, September 25. All boys must be in full uniform.

Troop meetings for the current season are in full swing and many fine activities are being planned. One of the major early forthcoming events is the annual fall Camporee at Starved Rock. To all appearances, Rolling Meadows will be well represented since most of the Panther Patrol have indicated intentions of attending. The many planned activities will contribute a great deal to the boys scouting lore, as well as the wonderful adventure of sleeping out of doors. Dads of all the boys are urged to attend since adult supervision is needed on an outing like this.

Troop 69 is still able to accomodate a number of boys as candidates and Scouts.

Any boys 11 years and older who are interested in scouting can contact Terry Loveless - Panther Patrol leader - at Clearbrook 3-7536—Terry lives at 2408 Sigwalt st., Willie Klaulhis, assistant Patrol leader, at 2709 Wilke rd., Clearbrook 3-2703, or Ken Keller of 2903 Wilke rd., Clearbrook 3-2840, who can also help with arrangements to visit the troop.

Scout committeemen are badly needed by the troop to help make the work load lighter for those already active. Any men interested in helping develop boys and who enjoy the company of boys would find this an enjoyable pastime as well as satisfactory work watching boys grow. Any Rolling Meadows men with or without past scouting experience interested in this fascinating work should contact Pete Keller, 2903 Wilke rd., Clearbrook 3-2840.

Cub Scouts

September 30 at 8 p.m., 2500 Meadow drive, the Cub Scout organization, including the committee and parents of the boys, will meet for a special program of information and instruction. The program will also include a motion picture film on Cub Scouting. Leaders will be Bob Applehans from Palatine, Van Falvey, field scout representative of the Northwest Suburban Council, and also District Commissioner Russell Young will be here for that meeting. It is very urgent that parents of the boys attend this meeting so that they will understand the program that is being set up for their boys.

Organization of the Cub Scouts is definitely under way. William Croutch, 2205 Blue Bird Lane, has been selected chairman of the sponsoring committee. Regular Den Pack meetings will soon be held here in Rolling Meadows at the various homes of the Den mothers. Those women who have offered to serve as Den mothers Garrity, Dorothea Griesman, include LaVerne Sladek, Myrla and Eleanor Keller. All boys who are interested in joining the Cub Scouts are requested to register at school. For further information regarding the Cub Scouts in Rolling Meadwos, you may call Elaine Grunewald at Clearbrook 3-6277 or J. G. Walker at Clearbrook 3-3352.

Birthday Celebrations

September seems to be the month of birthdays, at least in Rolling Meadows, among the young as well as the not so young. September 18, Jackie Cullen, 2309 Sigwalt, celebrated his third birthday with a bang-up party. Among those attending the party were Dawn Lortie, a little girl griend from Rolling Meadows, and Jackie's cousins who are Judy and Dale Banot, Donna Figura, Nancy and Terry Bieze, and Patsy Ellen Ruh all from Chicago. Strange as it may seem, Jackie was real happ yto be "given the bird." Jackie received a parakeet as one of his many birthday gifts and nothing pleased him more.

Little Johnny Macior of Dove st., entertained a group of his playmates last week at his fourth birthday party. The guests included Eddie, Don and Susie Duffy, Sandy and Gary Nebel, Christy Anderson, Leslie, Ricky, Randy and Ronny Traub, Larry Piekarski, and last but not least, his sister, Joan. Ice cream and cake were enjoyed by all.

Kevin Mahoney, of Wing st., enjoyed a happy birthday, his seventh, in the company of four of his school chums, Kent Nylin, Jan Christenson, Jim Jansen, and Arthur Krause. After refreshments, the boys attended a movie in Mt. Prospect.

Kenny Keller celebrated his twelfth birthday Monday, by inviting a group of his buddies over for ice cream and cake after school.

A birthday was also celebrated by the "not so young." I received a card from Helene Bristol, your regular reporter, saying she was having a wonderful time and she and Bob were going to celebrate her birthday in Buffalo, N. Y., last Saturday.

Recuperating

Lucy Kunz, 2204 Sigwalt st., is doing well after a rather serious operation performed last Wednesday in Presbyterain hospital. She hopes to be home next week, if things go well, and she's so anxious that they do, as she misses her husband and two young sons, as well as all of her friendly neighbors.

Little Carol Eichorst, aged 3 of 2506 South st., just returned from a three weeks' stay in the hospital. Her parents were certainly glad to have her back home again, and she was so glad to be back.

Terry Martin of Wilke rd., who was accidently shot in the eye with a B-B gun, has certainly recuperated in a hurry, but not too fast for Terry. Last Monday was his first day back at school and his teacher and classmates were certainly pleased to see him again. Through this column, Terry wants to thank each and everyone who sent him all those nice cards wishing him a speedy recovery.

Larry Geimer, 1½ year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Geimer, had a cist removed from his ankle at Martha Washington hospital last Friday. Larry is now back home and feeling fine.

Birth News

A baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Bill Rooney, 2307 Eastman avenue, last September 3. Mary Janet weighed 7 pounds 1 ounce and was born at St. Francis hospital, Evanston. The Rooneys also have a son, Brian, 3½ years old.

Community Church

Last evening, the official board of the Midwest Community church Development Association, Inc., visited and was entertained by the Rolling Meadows Community church. A dinner was served to them at the church office by a committee of the Womens' association headed by Nancy Ringsmuth. The official board met here in Rolling Meadows to review the work of the church and discuss further assistance.

Last Monday night, September 20, the men's work group of the Community church met at the church office to discuss and plan work schedules to be used in converting the "red barn" into a comfortable and practical church home. The work sheet was prepared by Paul Nordskog, temporary head of the work project, the designs were prepared by Karl Gengler; and a report was made on the first work project by Bill Dow. William Strevig served as secretary. The first project will be moving the hay from the barn. The men will meet at the barn Saturday, at 10 a.m. All men interested in working should contact Bill Dow at Clearbrook 3-0206, or just show up in work clothes. Real enthusiasm is being generated for all barn projects.

Last Monday night the Community church choir held their regular rehearsal at the Glenview Community church where they will sing at a special Sunday evening service September 26. Members of the church and community are invited to attend this service at the Glenview Community church, which will commence at 8 p. m.

The Rolling Meadows Community church is really rolling. Last Sunday, the number of children, teachers, and worshipers in attendance were approximately 161, which is 30 more than were seen in the congregation the previous Sunday.

Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Zaccard, 2200 Eastman, celebrated their thirteenth wedding anniversary.

American Legion

Merle Guild Post 208 of the American Legion, located at the southeast corner of Douglas and Miner st., Arlington Heights, invites all interested veterans to attend a social meeting dedicated to Rolling Meadows, Tuesday night, September 28, at 8:30 p.m. This invitation is extended to all veterans of World Wars I and II, and the Korean conflict. All refreshments are "on the house." This should be a good way to get acquainted with your neighbors and the members of the Post.

Church Party

The Ushers' club of Our Lady of the Wayside Catholic church, is extending a personal invitation to the residents of Rolling Meadows to attend their party next Saturday night. From 8 p.m. to midnight — there will be square dancing, cards, games, and a barbecue. The party will be held on the parish grounds at Mitchell and Park in Arlington Heights. This will be an ideal time to become better acquainted with our new neighbors and have fun too.

Blood Donors

Several times in the past few months it has become necessary for some of the people of Rolling Meadows to send out a SOS for blood donors. Since there are a number of persons who are willing to give blood, it was thought that a special list of blood donors could be set up and these people called upon whenever a situation arose where blood donors were needed. I'm sure that all Rolling Meadowites who can give blood will phone in their names and blood type, if it is known. All interested persons can call Don Dahlquist at Clearbrook 3-0889. Let's make this a long list so that whenever an emergency arises where blood is needed, we can call someone on the list and perhaps save a life.

News

Tanks so much for phoning me all the latest news and again I say, don't hesitate to call me whenever you have anything of interest. Workers Lose Half A Billion In Accidents

American workers could increase their take-home pay by as much as a half a billion dollars annually simply by being a little more careful.

Workers lost almost a billion dollars in wages in 1953 as a result of work accidents, according to the national safety council, although about half that amount was returned to them in compensation payments.

"Accident Facts," the council's statistical yearbook, just off the press, places the total cost of on-the-job accidents at $3,150,000,000. This figure includes wage losses, medical expenses, insurance overhead costs and indirect costs.

Rummagre Sale

Mrs. Dorothy Karnuth, VA 4-8097, Mrs. Eva Anderson, VA 4-2215, and Mrs. Vera Brookhouzen, CL 3-3378 - these three ladies have the room to store all the things you have set aside for the PTA rummage sale scheduled for the week end of October 1 and 2. They suggest you call one of them, and they will arrange to take care of your donations. The merit of this plan is two-fold, as it will get the things out of your way, and it will give the committee an early start on sorting and marking.

The hospitality committee of the PTA met last week Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Marguerite Broberg, chairman. Mrs. Helen Huege, Mrs. Genevieve Campbell and Mrs. Marty Messner all attended. The decorations for the September meeting were planned in detail, and the duties of each member outlined.

Five members of our PTA, (Mrs. Roberta Phar, Mrs. Marguerite Broberg, Mrs. Alma Mueller, Mrs. Helen Huege and Mrs. Dorothy Karnuth), attended the Prospect Heights PTA last week Tuesday. They enjoyed particularly the 10 minute talk by Mrs. Willie on the relationship of the local PTA to the State and National, and the question and answer period held near the close of the program.

The September meeting of the Forest River Home Owners' Civic ass'n., will be held 8,30 p.m. next Tuesday, at the Community Hall. All residents of Forest River are welcome.

Teen-Age Club

The Teen-Agers Club, sponsored by the F.R.H.O. Civic association, had a fine time at their meeting last Saturday night. Mrs. Phar was chaperone for the evening. Plans were made for the next meeting to be held the third Saturday in October. This will be a Halloween party, and each member is inviting a guest. There will be refreshments and games, but it will not be a costume party. Mrs. Phar mentioned that they would like to have more teen-agers attend these gatherings—the more members, the more fun for all.

At the Games Party last Friday night, (sponsored by the F.R.H.O. Civic Ass'n., Mrs. Paul Kleeman, chairman), Mr. and Mrs. M. Zeravich of the White Stucco Inn delighted the gathering when they arrived with their party, loaded down with about ten large items of merchandise which were to be used as prizes.

Our Lady of Lourdes Guild, at their September meeting, had two main topics of interest to discuss - one was the mother and daughter breakfast Sunday, Oct. 3, at which they will be serving, and which is held in the St. Mary's school hall in Des Plaines - and the other matter was the bazaar, which is going to be held some time in October. Plans for the bazaar will be discussed more extensively at the October meeting.

Girl Scouts

The first official fall meeting of the Intermediate Girl Scout Troop No. 233 was held in the Forest Preserves last Thursday. Election of officers was the highlight of the business meeting, and the following girls will serve for the next six weeks: Kathryn Swiatowy, president; Corinne Lopez, treasurer; Diane Wilming, secretary; and Joanne Arkell, vice president and program chairman. The program for the meeting was a scavenger hunt, with the girls hunting high and low for things of nature that were on their list.

Adult Scouts of Troop No. 233, (Mrs. Betty Arkell, Mrs. Rita Badalamenti, Mrs. H. Sandquist, Mrs. I. A. Hanson, Mrs. Broberg and Mrs. D. Karnuth), met at the home of Mrs. Badalamenti last Monday to discuss plans for the coming season. With three leaders now, a much larger troop can be taken care of, and there is room for quite a few new members. Any girl in the Feehanville district, 10 to 14 years old, is eligible to join. The meetings are held at the Forest River Community Hall on Thursdays, from 4:15 p.m. to 5:45 p.m. Ways and means of equipping the new leaders for their work in scouting were discussed, and the troop committee is planning on having a bake sale to obtain funds for this purpose.

Brownie Troop No. 231 hold their meetings Tuesdays at 3:20 p.m., and last Tuesday was the first meeting of the fall season. There is a warm welcome waiting there for any little girl between the ages of 7 and 10, who would like to be a Brownie. The Brownies, too, meet at the Forest River Community Hall.

Church Party

There was not a dull moment at the Parent Teachers' night, at the Forest River church last Friday night. The program committee, (Mrs. Ruth Bischof, Jack Levine, Miss Ruth Pierson and Emert Roos), had planned such a full evening that each item on the program had to dovetail with the next in order to get it all in. Hilarious action games alternated with quiet paper games. Highlights of the Sunday school picnic were shown in the movie, colored slides were shown of the Sunday School pupils, and the film of the evening, "This is Their Future," proved so absorbing that the "Custodians of the pot" as Emert Roos phrased it, forgot they were on duty for refreshments.

However, the unplanned gap in the program was so pleasantly filled by singing songs, that it needed the sight of the delicious refreshments to still the voices. Mrs. Mae Campbell, who has been teaching Sunday school faithfully for the past six years, was presented with a gift from the other teachers Mrs. Campbell does not feel she has enough time right now to do justice to her class, and is giving it up for a while.

Hi-C Club

Philip Roos and John Hanson, with the Maine Hi-C club, attended the area-wide meeting of the Hi-C clubs, held at the Lakeview high school in Chicago last week Tuesday. Stuart Hamblen, one-time cowboy, one-time disc jockey, and composer of several songs (one of which, "This Ol' House" is on the current hit parade), was the speaker of the evening, and kept the interest of the teen-agers every minute of the time he was on the stage. They particularly enjoyed the stories he had to tell of how he came to write the various songs.

Tommy Kramer celebrated his birthday last Thursday with a party. Cousins from the city and some of his little playmates in the neighborhood came to help him celebrate.

John Hanson and Robert Martens, who were born on the same day of the month but year apart, were guests of honor at a surat the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bischof on Anita st. The guests all had a hilarious time playing the games planned for the evening. The boys each received a dacron shirt and tie, and there was a huge birthday cake with their names on it. Among the guests present were the Rev. and Mrs. Robert Swanson of Chicago, Gail Wiltshire of Prospect Heights, Philip Roos of Cumberland, Paul Meyer of Chicago, Bonnie and Robert Levine of McDonald rd., and Marlene Olson, Margie Kirste, Margie Suhren, Elaine Hanson and Mrs. Evelyn Martens, of Forest River.

Birthday congratulations this week also go to Paul Nowicki, who was 8 on the 20th, Gilbert John Seilheimer, who was 6 on the 23rd, and George Grossi, who was 10 on the 24th.

Christened

Mr. and Mrs. Roman Anderson were sponsors for little Dawn Hedburg, at her christening last Sunday, in the Prospect Heights Community church. After the ceremony friends and relatives of the Hedburg family gathered at their home for a little celebration.

Mrs. Fank Arkell and son, Jimmy, attended the wedding of Mrs. Arkell's cousin, Barbara Jean Kinder, to Gerald Flint, at the Weedon Methodist church in Evanston last Saturday. The reception was held at the Georgian hotel, also in Evanston.

Arlington Crest News

Sunday, September 19, Deborah Ann Nordstrom was baptized by Rev. Gumm of St. Paul Evangelical and Reformed church, Palatine. Sponsors were Dorothy Hanson and Darwin Mogren. Guests were grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Nordstrom and Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Mogren, Victor Hanson and Stanly Nordstrom.

Birthday greetings to Diane Schweiger September 16, Leona Stutz September 22 and Stevie Lisching September 18.

Regular meeting of Arlington Crest Civic association was held September 15. After the business meeting, coffee and rolls were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Keller and Mrs. Fernstrom. Next meeting will be October 20.

Annual dance of Arlington Crest Civic association is to be October 23 at Fred's place.

School Addition

Now that the exterior of the new school addition has been completed, it is hard to tell from a passing glance how rapidly the interior is progressing. Plumbers and heating engineers have their rough-in work done, which is as far as they can go until the floor is laid. Pea gravel has been laid in preparation for the cement floor which the contractors expect to pour this week. The two classes now held in the school basement are most anxious to get into regular class rooms.

PTA Tea

Last week it was announced that a tea would be given for new PTA members September 29 at the home of Mrs. Nygren. Due to unforeseen circumstances, Mrs. Nygren will be unable to have the tea on that date, but the event will take place the latter part of October, at the end of the membership drive, and the exact date will be announced later.

Arlington Heights Village theatre will present "The Case of the Missing Handshake" at the next PTA meeting which will be held at the school October 8. Plan to come and bring your neighbors

Election in the Meadows

Biggest news in Prospect Meadows this week was a heavy majority vote in favor of becoming a park district Election was held September 18 between 1 p. m. and 7 p.m. The Property Owners association has actively backed the formation of this park district and made sure to circulate reminder flyers to all residents a few days before the election. The turnout was not as heavy as was hoped for; however it was great enough to indicate the preference of the community. The five commissioners elected were: Charles Brazeau, Donald Finch, Robert Klein, Julian Pelletier and William Vosburgh. These returns, of course, are subject to inspection by the court.

More Fair Information

Arlette Klein wishes to express her thanks to everyone for the tremendous success of the fair. The wonderful response of the community in donating articles, working and patronizing its many booths made it all possible. She informs us (and everyone noticed) that Vic Incinelli, co-chairman, was an untiring worker. He had charge of three money-making booths and his numerous fund-raising ideas and those of his wife, Ann, helped attain tremendous goals.

Here are the various jobs handled by the committee members: Rosemary Finch, white elephant booth; Kay Bischoff, games; Ann Incinelli and Ethel Larson, penny booth; Jean Seeber, delicatessen; Eve Ulan and Evelyn Daniels, refreshments Doralees Morales and Ginny Richardson, grandmother's booth and Chris Pelletier, fishbowl booth Girl Scouts, aided by Ann Cody and Dorothy Doyle, were in charge of the kiddies booth and did a wonderful job. Rubin Potratz provided music and public address system. Chuck Brazeau supplied trimmings for the booths and Jack Richardson the electrical work. Marilyn Peregrine and her block captains made a constant crusade for donations. Also, Marilyn's father donated all the oil on canvas signs used at the various booths. John Berchmans and Olga Goodwin supplied printing necessary for the undertaking. Don Finch and his crew of men used their rotary mowers to cut the waist-high weeds on the fairgrounds, and Andy Bischoff and his crew of workers helped secure lumber, benches, and the tent and construct the booths. Doralees Morales deserves special mention for doing secretarial work in conjunction with the affair.

This list is truly an impressive commentary of the wonderful spirit that abounds in our small community.

Grateful thanks are also extended to the many commercial people who contributed gifts or services: Black's Funeral home; Busse's Florist; McMahon Dry Goods; Fred Prather; Valentine Standard Service station; Unique pharmacy Flax Brothers; Sondee Manufacturing Co.; Schroeder's farm stand; Harry's Texaco station; Barnhoff Dairy,; Carl's Conoco Service Station; Arlington Milk company; Meeske's supermarket; Jewel Tea Co., National Food stores; Golden Delicatessen; Continental Baking company; Lou Nye's firm; Howard Evans; Avon Products; Jack Gunnell and Mrs. V. Richter. Thanks are also due the Orlowskis and the Knellers for the use of their electricity.

In summing up, Arlette Klein said, "there were at least 120 men and women who worked in these booths without whom this fair could not have been such a tremendous success. It should be an inspiration to all communities, the way neighbors can work together for a definite purpose and arrive at such a heart-warming success."

Newcomers

The welcoming committee called on two newcomers this past week. They were the Hehnan family, 404 Larkdale, and the Hoglund family, 439 Bob-O-Link rd.

The occasion was festive with clever decorations and delicious food. Barbara Sell "created" a cake, complete with sleeping babe.

The Richard Tanneys recently returned from a two week vacation. They enjoyed a tour through the Black Hills in Colorado.

The Murdocks, Bob-O-Link road entertained Mrs. Murdock's father, Paul Brunner, over the week end. Mr. Brunner resides in Cleveland.

TRIANGLE MOTOR SALES

Milwaukee Ave. Wheeling 372

Since this announcement was first published just one year ago, more than 8,000,000 motorists have proved the astonishing benefits of TCP in their own cars. Today, the greatest gasoline development in 31 years has become the greatest gasoline success in history!

CONOCO

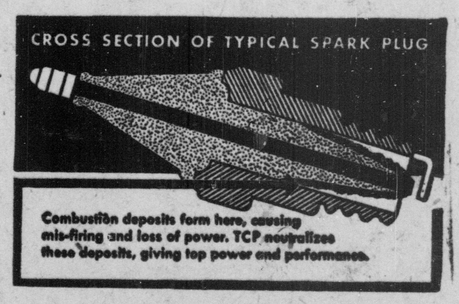
The Greatest Gasoline Development in 31 Years

New Conoco Super Gasoline with TCP*

Boosts power as much as 15%!

Increases spark-plug life up to 150%!

Gives you extra gas mileage, too!



Here's the most revolutionary advance in motor fuels since the introduction of tetraethyl lead in 1922—new Conoco Super Gasoline with TCP, brought to you by special arrangement with Shell Oil Company. TCP is Shell's trademark for the remarkable additive first developed for aviation fuels.

Now you can actually enjoy the benefits of an engine tune-up—just by changing to new Conoco Super Gasoline. Chances are, by the time you've finished your second tankful, you'll feel the increase in power. And you'll keep that extra power just as long as you use Conoco Super.

For Conoco Super with TCP is a new kind of gasoline. It overcomes the greatest single cause of power loss affecting most of the cars on the road today. Now, you can enjoy all the power that was built into your car.

Why you need Conoco Super Gasoline with TCP

In the average automobile, the by-products of fuel combustion constantly build up deposits on spark plugs and in combustion chambers. These deposits can "cheat" you of power in two ways. First, they actually short-circuit your spark plugs. This causes mis-firing. Second, deposits in the combustion chamber get red hot and cause the fuel to ignite before it should. This is called pre-ignition or "wild ping." The effect of fouled spark plugs and pre-ignition is a loss in power and a waste of gasoline.

How TCP works

TCP is a special chemical additive which is added to Conoco Super Gasoline. It was specifically developed to overcome the loss of power and fuel caused by combustion deposits. TCP neutralizes harmful deposits on spark plugs—your plugs spark as they should. It prevents deposits in the combustion chambers from causing pre-ignition—"wild ping" is controlled. Thus, every time you fill up with new Conoco Super, it's like getting your spark plugs cleaned and your engine tuned-up!

TCP helps your car, whether new or old

If you are driving a new car, with a high-compression engine, you need Conoco Super Gasoline to keep your car delivering all the power that was built into it. It will actually increase spark-plug life up to 150%. If you drive an older car, with tens of thousands of miles on the speedometer, Conoco Super can restore much of the "new car" performance and power you've been missing.

Yes, a great new era in motoring is here for you. Drive into your Conoco station today and fill your tank with new Conoco Super Gasoline with TCP. You'll feel the difference by the second tankful!

Your Guarantee. The trademark, TCP, is your guarantee that you are getting the full benefits of "The Greatest Gasoline Development in 31 Years." Only Shell Oil Company and its authorized licensee, Continental Oil Company, have the full knowledge of the proper use of TCP. Only Conoco Super Gasoline and Shell Premium have TCP.

Worst Year Looms Ahead For Spread Of Dutch Elm Ills

The Dutch elm disease threat is worse than ever before.

Two mild winters and two successive years drought have made for a higher population of elm bark beetles. These insects are carriers of the disease taking a heavy toll of the nation's finest shade trees.

Last summer showed infestation many times greater than in any season since the arboreal malady first was recognized in the early 1930's. This year indications are the scourge will be even more severe, according to F. R. Lancaster, plant pathologist of the Davey Tree Expert Co.

IF THE HOME owner knows or suspects Dutch elm disease is getting a foothold in the area, he had better check his trees carefully, advises the expert. Symptoms are brown, yellow and green wilted foliage and barren drooping branches after the diseased leaves have fallen.

Such symptoms may indicate other tree ills, as well. But there is an accurate check to determine infestation. Cut a branch about one-half inch in diameter and eight inches long and send it to your local state agricultural station. Laboratory analysis there will determine if the fungus is present.

THIS PAST spring the fungus was aided by the cool, wet weather in which it multiplies.

Best protection against the Dutch elm disease is to spray to control elm bark beetles and to help your tree maintain its vigor. This is accomplished with good tree care practices, such as feeding, adequate watering and pruning dead and dying branches. The beetles seem to prefer failing trees as targets for attack.

Tree Feeding Seen Best Weapon To Combat Drought

Drought-stricken shade and ornamental trees can be saved by prompt feeding to restore lagging vitality, a tree doctor said today.

Feeding not only helps growing vigor, but it thwarts boring insects, which like to attack weakened trees, according to Billy White, field representative of the Davey Tree Expert Co.

When trees are to some degree prematurely denuded as a result of severe drought, feeding with a fertilizer high in nitrogen content is an important part of the first aid treatment. Feeding operations should be followed immediately by generous watering to revive wilted leaves and to activate the fertilizer. Long after leaf fall, roots remain active in searching out food. A more efficient root system also helps the tree gulp up every available bit of moisture in the soil.

The feeding technique is quite simple, the tree expert explained. Best application is by the perforation method. Holes about 18 inches apart and 12 to 18 inches deep are punched or drilled over the entire root area. This, roughly, is equivalent to the branch spread.

Use a tree food that contains ten or twelve per cent nitrogen and divide the dosage among the holes. Fill the remainder of each hole with peat moss or other humous materials - or the holes may be left open if preferred. Fall rains may help distribute the fertilizer. However, since rainfall is seldom dependable, deep watering with the garden hose may obtain the desired results much more quickly.

Subject: $10 bill

That $10 bill in your pocket ... what will it buy? ... Not many groceries; not much in the way of clothing ... In spite of what statisticians say about prices dropping or leveling, I'm inclined to lift an eyebrow ... Maybe anybody can prove anything if they twist the figures far enough around!

Cost of new housing is up; there have been several wage increases in just the last year. ..To hear the automobile hucksters, you'd htink cars were down - but still, you'll probably have to dig up anything from one to two thousand, plus your old trade-in ... Public utilities and other services, certainly cost just as much - and even, more ... Seems like that poor old tenner, these days, cuts a pretty sad figure!

There are a few places - such as advertising or cost of your weekly newspaper - that are "Up" - but because you get more (increased size or circulation), the dollar really gives full value ... Same thing holds true o nsome really good gift items just coming in ... for instance, the cleverest Doll House I have ever seen - new style "Ranch" - completely furnished and every detail in perfect proportion ... It's low (about 10" high at roof peak) long (36") and narrow (about 15" wide) in contemporaty styling.

It's featherweight (including the very realistic lift-off roof) is a far cry from the cheap paper - or else clumsy, heavy wood construction of the Doll House of yesteryear ... There's a patio furnished with a chaise lounge and umbrella table; a streamlined modern kitchen with breakfast bar; a combined lining-dining room - and the television set not only moves but there's an antenna atop the chimney! The bedroom is furnished with Hollywood beds, a chest with five tiny pull-out drawers and a "Mr. and Mrs." dresser ... The nursery has crib, chest and folding bath-in-ette - and the bath has the usual fixtures with drop lids on both the seat and the hamper ... The material, of course, is colorful plastic and all items are washable ...

It's an out-of-this-world dream for some lucky little girl and a perfect example of the wonderful things made possible by the teaming up of mass-production and the ideas of some very clever designer ... I appreciate all kinds of arts and crafts - but I can also appreciate the $10 tag on this minature house ... The original sample model - before the dies were made - must have cost hundreds of dollars - and somebody gambled a lot of money that this "brain-child" would sell! ... We have a sample on display and you can order one on the "$5 down, lay-away" plan.

Home Builders Are Confident

Midwest home builders are looking to the future with confidence. So concludes the Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago after conducting a survey of residential building contractors in this area. Virtually all builders interviewed expect their volume of operations in the next 12 months to be at least as great as in the past year.

In its monthly review, "Business Conditions," the bank points out that the tone of the market continues strong in most Midwest communities. None of the builders contacted hold appreciable inventories of unsold homes despite the recent upsurge in speculative building. Moreover, many firms report that they are sold ahead well into fall.

EASIER CREDIT, particularly to veterans, was frequently cited by builders as the major cause of the strong demand for housing. VA loans are now commonly available in Midwest centers at 5 per cent down and 30 years to pay. Down payments of 10 to 15 per cent and 25-year maturities were typically required at the turn of the year.

What's more, the bank asserts, reductions in minimum FHA terms as provided by the recently passed Housing Act of 1954 could significantly expand the potential non-veteran housing market. Since longer maturities result in lower required monthly payments, persons with smaller incomes will be able to buy homes. Of course, lower down payments will also stimulate home buying by bringing individuals into the market who have adequate incomes but are short of ready cash.

RESIDENTIAL construction for the nation provided a major prop to business through spring. Since then, the bank says, home-building activity has picked up even further.

Privately financed housing starts, which about matched those of early 1953 during the first months of this year, showed strong year-to-year gains of 13% in both June and July. At the current rate, total starts for the year will approach 1.2 million, second only to 1950's record volume.

Here Are Answers To First Questions Of New Social Security Act

Passage of the 1954 amendments to the social security act September 1, 1954, has brought a large number of inquiries to the district office of the social security administration, 5306 W. Lawrence ave.

To save local residents unnecessary trips and phone calls, Miss Ellen McGuire, district manager, has prepared answers to the three most frequently asked questions.

The top three concern increased benefits, payments to those 72 years of age, and the new retirement test. Here are the answers:

1. The new larger social security checks for those already receiving benefits will be mailed early in October. Increases will range from a minimum of $5.00 to a maximum of $13.50 per month for retired workers. Family groups are guaranteed a minimum increase of $5.00 and some families may receive as much as $31.00, depending upon the insured person's average earnings and the size of the family group. No one now receiving benefits needs to do anything to get these increases. They are automatic.

2. In 1955 beneficiaries will be able to earn up to $1200 a year before losing any monthly payments. The present limitation of $75 per month remains in effect through December 1954.

3. Beginning January 1, 1955 there will be no earnings limit for anyone 72 years of age or older. Those already on the benefit rolls will be sent a form to complete but those who have not yet filed claim may do so after January 1.

Those desiring other information about the new law may contact the district office.

General John E. Smith, a jeweler in Galena who was later a member of General U. S. Grant's staff, built this house in 1845. It is a beautiful example of Greek revival architecture, and has been measured by the Historic American building survey for record in the Library of Congress. Now known as the Louis A. Nack residence, it is one of eight old houses which will be open to the public on the sixth annual tour of historic Galena homes September 25-26.

Seek Approval of Site for Gas Station on Rts. 53-62

The petition for rezoning a corner of the Haberkamp farm at the intersection of Routes 53 and 62 is at the request of Rolland Franzen and Richard Manke, who anticipate its use as a gas station if the rezoning is granted.

Gardening Habits Give Insight Into Personality

by OTTO H. AMLING

I can always tell a provident, farsighted person by his gardening habits. He plants a great deal in fall.

OTTO AMLING

But anyone, regardless of his inclinations, must plant in fall if he wants a spring display of crocus, hyacinths, daffodils, peonies, lilies and all the other perenials that add to nature's vigorous cele-bration of its spring awaken-ing.

Bulbs are exceedingly rewarding. They require no pampering and—once they pop their sprouts into the spring sunshine—quickly produce large, colorful blooms.

I SAY BULBS require no pampering. That's true. But they do appreciate good planting. And good planting simply means the exercise of common sense. It's relatively easy to produce a one-time production of flowers because the bulbs you plant this fall already have next spring's flowers within themselves. Cut a bulb open and, in the center, you will see the embryo of the flower that will develop and come up when sufficiently encouraged by spring's rain and sunshine. But, if you want yearly repeat performances from the same bulb, you must observe the rules of good planting.

Here are the simple rules for planting bulbs:

First get good-sized bulbs. Your local nursery has them. Avoid mail-order bargain bulbs. They are dear at any price because—even if big enough to produce flowers—the blooms will be disappointingly small.

START WITH GOOD-SIZED bulbs that are good-sized because they are "adult" bulbs—well grown—and sure to bloom. These bulbs will be with you for years. So it's true economy to buy the very finest.

Plant those bulbs in a reasonably sunny location and in a spot that drains well. Bulbs don't like wet feet. If thy stand too long in icy water they rot and die. If your garden soil is heavy, mix in sand to improve the drainage.

Now, as to the actual planting: The bulb must send out roots to feed itself. So let the surrounding soil be well broken and free of lumps.

The bulb next spring must send a tender shoot upward. So, again, make sure there are no lumps on top of the bulb.

IN MY PERSONAL gardening I have had excellent results from this plan: After digging a hole to proper depth and making sure the under soil is soft and friable, I place the bulb in position and then fill in the "well" above the bulb with a mixture of peat and vermiculite in about even parts. This permits deeper planting — which avoids winter heaving — and makes a covering the shoots can penetrate without difficulty.

This procedure is especially suited to the planting of hyacinths, that gorgeous perennial which gives some gardeners so much trouble. Actually, hyacinths planted in a light soil and covered as above described, will produce prize-winning blooms. At least they do for me.

I have told you before, if you don't want to bother to dig up and replant your tulips each year, plant them a foot down and they'll need no further attention for years. Of course they must be covered with a light-soil mixture, free of stones and lumps.

Plant all spring-flowering bulbs as early as possible so that they make fall-growth under the soil.

Bits O' Business

Drivers who tested a plastic truck body for parcel delivery found the vehicle more maneuverable and less noisy than comparable metal-bodied ones . . . Construction outlays in August were 8 per cent above the year-ago figure . . . Retail inventories showed a greater-than-normal decline in July . . . A What's What in Chemicals—an authoritative index to the physical properties of every commercial chemical compound—has been begun by Carnegie Institute of Technology and the Manufacturing Chemists Association.

Maxon Construction Wins Special Award

Maxon construction company of Barrington, builder of National Homes, has won a special merit award in Parents' magazine's fifth annual builders competition for the "Best Homes for Families with Children," it was announced today by George J. Hecht, publisher of Parents' Magazine. The Barrington firm was one of ten builders throughout the United States to win one of the 14 Merit Awards.

The special award to Maxon was for excellence in site planning 20 factory prefabricated houses of similar type built on adjoining plots in their Barrington Woods development. The site planning was judged to be excellent in the preservation and use of natural advantages of the site, the relation of houses to each other and to their own plots.

Extend GI Home Loan Provisions For Home Repairs

Veterans should find it easier to get supplemental loans for major alterations, repairs and improvements to their GI homes as a result of the housing act of 1954 and new veterans administration streamlined procedures.

The housing act, which became law August 2, 1954, makes it possible for World War II and post-Korea veterans to take advantage of any unused GI home loan entitlement for home improvement loans.

TO FURTHER encourage lenders to make more such loans, VA now will allow supervised lenders holding GI home loans to complete home improvement loans to their veteran - borrowers without getting clearance in advance from VA.

VA emphasized that under the housing act which amends the GI bill, a supplemental loan may be guaranteed or insured by VA only if it covers repairs necessary for the protection of the property or will substantially improve the basic livability or utility of the property.

VA ESTIMATES that more than 3,000,000 of the 3,351,000 veterans who have obtained GI home loans have some home loan guaranty entitlement left. Under the GI Bill, veterans have a maximum guaranty entitlement of 60 per cent of a GI home loan. But the guaranty cannot exceed $7,500.

Previously, if a veteran had used $4,000 or more of his entitlement, he was unable to use the balance for a supplemental loan for home improvements. If he had used less than $4,000, he was entitled to only the difference between what he had used and $4,000 for supplemental loans.

Now, with the passage of the Housing Act of 1954, there are no limitations on the use of any part of the maximum $7,500 home loan guaranty entitlement for home improvement loans.

Will Discuss Meat, Milk And Poultry At Meeting Sept. 30

Following a bad hog year in 1952, farmers cut pig numbers in 1953. The result was that hog producers had one of their best years. Although hog numbers are going up again, 1954, will also be a good year.

But what effects will the continued buildup in hog population have on your next year's operation? This is one of the "hot" questions in farming to be talked over at the North Cook county livestock outlook meeting, which will be held Thursday, September 30, at 8 p.m. in the farm bureau building in Arlington Heights.

THE PRESENT milk surplus problem will likewise be discussed. Also poultry, eggs and other meat products. The general economic situation will be of interest to all present.

These men will report facts found through the nation-wide reporting facilities of the U. S. and State Departments of Agriculture and from daily contact with livestock markets. And, according to farm adviser Carl F. Mees, they'll help to explain them in terms of what these facts men to farmers in North Cook county area.

It's a meeting, he says, you can't afford to miss.

Ag. College Promotes Hog Grading System

American homemakers are seeing red these days. The red in this case is lean pork.

Meat packers and farmers both know that the only way to supply this demand and keep the supplies of fresh pork moving is to market hogs with more meat on them.

But farmers are not inclined to change their present methods of raising fat hogs unless they know that they will be paid for their efforts. For that reason a solution to the problem seems to lie in a system of buying market hogs by grade.

LIVESTOCK MEN at the University of Illinois College of Agriculture are working to help packers and producers know these hog grades. The result will be that everyone will buy and sell hogs on the basis of what they are worth at the meat counter rather than simply by their live weight.

This program breaks down into three parts, according to R. L. Coppersmith, livestock marketing specialist at the college:

FIRST, HOG marketing conferences for the packer buyers, order buyers and commission salesmen to be held at the markets.

Second, hog marketing days for farmer producers at the markets.

Third, a series of county-wide meetings all over the state to encourage more farmers to produce meat-type hogs.

Coppersmith points out that producing meat-type hogs is a matter of breeding and feeding on the farm. The first step toward growing lean hogs on any farm is a long, lean boar to head up the swine herd.

Sweet Clover And Alfalfa Catch Crops Improve Soil

Put sweet clover and alfalfa at the top of your list of legumes to use as catch crops.

University of Illinois soil fertility specialist L. B. Miller says these legumes will help to build up the soil on your farm. Red and mammoth clover also make effective catch crops.

Legume catch crops grown with wheat and oats or other small grains improve the soil for the following crops. They are most effective when your crop rotation does not include legumes as hay or pasture. Catch crops pay off in higher yields, particularly when they are plowed under before corn.

SWEET CLOVER rates high because of its rapid, vigorous growth. In the year following seeding, sweet clover often averages from 1¼ to 2 tons of dry matter per acre. This dry matter contains from about 80 to nearly 200 pounds of nitrogen. About two-thirds of the nitrogen comes from the air.

In some cases alfalfa is superior to sweet clover as a catch crop. On farms in areas where the sweet clover weevil is a serious threat, alfalfa red clover and mammoth clover can be used.

IN ADDITION to improving soil fertility and boosting crop yields, catch crops help to control soil erosion. The deep-growing roots and heavy top growth add plenty of organic matter to the soil. This organic matter in turn improves soil tilth.

If you are growing catch crops with winter grain, seed them in February or March. For spring grains, seed legumes at the same time you seed the grain. They usually cause little or no interference with the grain crop.

With favorable weather and soil conditions, catch crops make good growth in the fall. You can plow them under in late fall or early sping in time to prepare the ground for the following crop.

To Show How Crop Drier Can Be Used To Dry Farm Lumber

You'll be able to see a special, low-cost lumber-drying unit built around a small, portable crop drier in operation at the logging, sawmilling and forestry show north of Port Byron October 7 and 8.

L. B. Culver, extension forester at the University of Illinois college of agriculture and general chairman of the show, reports that the unit is designed to dry farm-grown lumber.

STUDIES SHOW, Culver says, that nearly a fourth of the timber cut from farm woodlands in the midwest is used on the same farm. Too much of it is not seasoned properly. Use of a crop drier for safe, rapid lumber drying will be a big help, especially where you don't have custom drying facilities near by.

For the demonstration, researchers will stack the lumber as for airdrying. Then they will build a wind tunnel and air chamber around the pile so that hot air from the drier will circulate through the lumber and back to the drier. They will use scrap lumber and roofing paper for the structure.

GREEN, YELLOW poplar lumber was dried to an average moisture content of 12% in five days at a similar demonstration in Ohio two years ago, Culver says. In other tests, soft hardwood lumber partially air-dried was brought down from 27 to 9 percent moisture content in four days.

During the logging show demonstration, a stack of about 4,000 board feet of native hardwood lumber will be dried to a moisture content suitable for immediate farm construction. The Illinois Hardwood Lumber producers association, the Rock Island County Service Company, the Lennox Furnace Co., which makes the crop drier to be used, and the Forest Products Laboratory are cooperating with the committee on educational exhibits for the demonstration.

Tells Of Drouth-Stricken Corn Area Central Illinois

Thousands of people attending the National Plowing Contest in the gray dust of southern Illinois at Olney got a first-hand look last week at the effects of the drouth. Corn in this area will make from two to fifteen bushels per acre.

One farmer told of picking 16 acres and getting it all on one wagon. Another reported that he picked all day with a two row picker and didn't get a wagon box full.

CORN ALONG the roads is dwarfed — standing waist high to shoulder high. The plants appear bushy, as the stalks failed to gain much height, and the leaves are pushed together and tassels fail to emerge very far. Examination of such fields shows many barren stalks. Many with long cobs with only 15 or 20 grains, and the best ears are short nubbins only 3 or 4 inches long.

Near the site of the plowing contest is a new white concrete marker, indicating the center of population of the United States. Surrounding the plot where the marker is, is another dwarfed corn field. The farmer who planted it says, "What will you give me for the field? Will you give me enough to pay for fertilizer?"

YOU KNOW from the tone of his voice that he faces a big loss on his corn crop. He discloses that he has spent $22.50 per acre on fertilizer on corn that will make from 5 to 10 bushels per acre. This could be multiplied hundreds of times in the immediate vicinity.

Soy beans are giving this area a little cash income, as bean yields are running from 3 bushels per acre up to 10 or 12. But farmers in the drouth areas are still in bad shape. Pastures are completely dried up. It is too dry to plant fall grain. Subsoil moisture is still very much depleted and cash income will be almost nil. This condition prevails over a wide area south of Highway 36. This visit to the plowing contest has given farmers from the more favored areas an opportunity to see just how lucky they are in this year of 1954.

4-H Enrollment In State Tops 60,000

Illinois 4-H Club membership exceeded 60,000 for the first time this year, when official figures show a total enrollment of 61,827 boys and girls.

Miss Anna Searl and E. I. Pilchard, state leaders of home economics and agriculture 4-H club work in the state respectively, report an increase of 3,206 members over last year.

That's an increase of 5.5 percent over the total of 58,621 in 1953.

Home economics clubs maintained their lead over the agriculture clubs in enrollment with 32,399 members compared with 29,428 in agriculture clubs.

They're Smuggling Chicken Soup Mixes From Switzerland To Italy

by BILL DILLINGHAM

A man darts behind a huge rock, slides down an embankment, and disappears. Two shots are fired. An Italian border guard races up and sees that the fugitive has dropped something. He picks it up, makes an inspection, and what is it? A package of chicken-soup powdered mix, the latest thing in get-rich-quick commodities.

Smugglers have discovered that there is a gold mine in the business of carrying chicken soup concentrate from Switzerland into Italy. Every unemployed smuggler on the Continent has come to the area, and there still seems to be enough business for everybody!

THE SWISS and Italian frontier guards, however, have been alerted and re-inforced to hold back this illegal trade. There are patrol dogs being transferred from other border areas to help out in this chicken-soup landslide.

The center of the problem lies with the fact that chicken soup concentrate is no longer on sale in Italy, and this is a food that is highly valued by the Italian public. When millions of people are deprived of even the smallest item, be it a toothbrush, shoestrings or simple safety pins, and deprived of it completely, then the market for big business is open.

REPORTS from the frontier, especially around Chiasso and Lugano, reveal that the Italian guards are nabbing between four and five thousand packages daily. It is known, however, that this area is a smuggler's paradise because of the numerous mountain passes. It is estimated that only about one smuggler in twenty is caught, and then only because he is a foreigner and unfamiliar with the Alps.

In 1950 the manufacture of powdered chicken soup in Italy was outlawed completely. It has taken some time for the manufacturers' warehouses to become empty, and now the situation has finally come to a crisis. Unofficial sources say that there are certain interests in the government that stand to gain through this prohibitive law. They claim that the lobbyists are working hand in hand with the syndicates and taking a heavy cut from all smuggled merchandise.

THE SWISS frontier guards never worry too much about what goes out of their country. The Swiss government and people stand to gain when their products are bought, so that their border guards are there more for diplomatic purposes than for actually chasing down smugglers. There is a standing joke along the Swiss-Italian border that the Swiss frontier guards will never do anything to get mud on their uniforms.

Besides the difficulty in catching smugglers in such a mountainous area, the Italian customs officials face the problem of having to pay their own men such low wages. By being a little co-operative and looking the other way when a smuggler passes, a guard can increase his salary tremendously.

IN ADDITION to that, the only guards who are capable of competing with a smuggler are those who have been born in the mountain areas. These men played and went to school as children with those who later went into smuggling. Sometimes a guard's own brother will be in the business.

In some villages where just about every family derives an income from contraband, it is difficult for a guard not to have at least one relative as a smuggler. Considering these circumstances, which the Italian officials accept as unavoidable, it is difficult to know just whom a border guard is working for.

At Pensacola

Arthur Koester, 303 S. Edward, Mount Prospect, is a naval air cadet at Pensacola. He was made a member of the Pensacola choir which appears on TV once each month thruout the United States. The choir will appear in Chicago for the dedication of the U boat Saturday at the Museum of Science and Industry. The group will be held over to Monday when members will appear on Don McNeil's TV breakfast club.

Newsstand Of The Week

Buying out one of his customers, and going into business for himself was the situation presented to Bob Gronau in Northbrook four years ago with Bob and wife, Elsie, taking over the delicatessen at 1018 Waukegan road.

Bob was a milkman for Santi Bros. dairy, delivering throughout the Northbrook area for seven years. When he heard one of his customers, Oscar Lystlund, wanted to sell his delicatessen, Bob and Elsie took over.

Both husband and wife work at the store, with daughter, 11-year-old Joy, giving moral support. In addition to the usual delicatessen foods, Chicago and local papers are sold over the counter, one of the 60 newsstands selling more than 8,000 copies of Paddock Publications every week. —Staff Photo.

Parakeets Gaining In Popularity, But Still Far Short Of Dogs

The pet business is a big business in the United States. According to the officials of the international pet fair approximately 4,000,000 families now own 6,500,000 parakeets. By the end of 1955 approximately 6,500,000 families will own parakeets. 2,800,000 families own canaries.

Parakeet population still falls short of the estimated 19,600,000 dogs and 14,600,000 cats, but the feathered mimics conceivably could hit the top of the list if their current popularity persists.

Chicagoans will have an opportunity to decide on their favorite household pet during the international pet fair which boasts the largest array of live pets ever assembled under one roof.

NOTICE
PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS

Pursuant to law in such case made and provided, public notice is hereby given that the following proposed amendments to the Illinois Constitution will be submitted on a separate blue ballot to the electors of the State of Illinois for adoption or rejection at the General Election to be held on November 2, 1954.

LEGISLATIVE
AMENDMENT
Article IV

Section 6. The General Assembly in 1955 shall redistrict the state for the purpose of electing state senators. There shall be fifty-eight senatorial districts. Cook county shall have twenty-four of the districts. These twenty-four districts shall be located as follows: Eighteen in the territory that is within the present corporate limits of the city of Chicago; and six in the territory that is in Cook county outside such corporate limits. The remaining one hundred and one counties of the state shall have thirty-four of the senatorial districts.

All senatorial districts shall be formed of contiguous and compact territory. In their formation, area shall be the prime consideration.

The senatorial districts shall be numbered one, two, three, and so forth, including fifty-eight. Each such district shall elect one senator, whose term of office shall be four years. Senators elected in districts bearing even numbers shall be elected in 1956 and every four years thereafter; and senators elected in districts bearing odd numbers shall be elected in 1958 and every four years thereafter.

Section 7. The General Assembly in 1955 and in 1963, and every ten years thereafter shall redistrict the state for the purpose of electing state representatives. There shall be fifty-nine representative districts. In the 1955 redistricting Cook county shall have thirty of the districts. These thirty districts shall be located as follows: Twenty-three in the territory that is within the present corporate limits of the City of Chicago; and seven in the territory that is in Cook County outside such corporate limits. In the 1955 redistricting, the remaining one hundred and one counties of the state shall have twenty-nine of the representative districts. In redistricting subsequent to the 1960 census and thereafter the fifty-nine representative districts shall be divided among (1) that part of Cook County that is within the present corporate limits of the City of Chicago, (2) that part of Cook county that is outside such corporate limits, and (3) the remaining one hundred and one counties of the state, as nearly as may be, as the population of each of these three divisions bears to the total population of the state.

Representative districts shall be formed of contiguous and compact territory, and shall contain, as nearly as practicable, a population equal to the representative ratio; outside of Cook County, such districts shall be bounded by county lines unless the population of any county entitles it to more than one representative district. The representative ratio for the entire state shall be the quotient obtained by dividing the population of the state by fifty-nine. No representative district may contain less population than four-fifths of the representative ratio.

Three representatives shall be elected in each representative district in 1956 and every two years thereafter. The term of office shall be two years. In all elections of representatives aforesaid, each qualified voter may cast as many votes for one candidate as there are representatives to be elected, or may distribute the same, or equal parts thereof among the candidates as he shall see fit; and the candidates highest in votes shall be declared elected.

Section 8. In performing its duties under Sections 6 and 7 of this amendment, the General Assembly shall redistrict and reapportion in a single legislative enactment. If, however, the regular session of the General Assembly in 1955 as to both senatorial and representative districts or in 1963, or any ten years thereafter as to representative districts fails by the first day of July to redistrict the state into such districts, then the redistricting shall be accomplished by a commision. Within thirty days after such first day of July, the state central committee of each of the two political parties, casting the highest votes for governor at the last preceding gubernatorial election, shall submit to the governor of the state a list of ten persons. Within thirty days thereafter, the governor shall appoint the commission of ten members, five from each list. If either of the state central committees fails to submit the list within the specified time, the governor, within the specified time, shall appoint five members of his own choice from the party of such committee. Each member of the committee shall receive $25.00 a day, but not more than $2,000 for his service.

This commission shall redistrict the state into senatorial districts and into representative districts in the manner specified above. This comission shall file with the secretary of state a full statement of the numbers of the senatorial and representative districts and their boundaries. No such statement shall be valid unless approved by seven members of such commission.

After such statement is filed, senators and representatives shall be elected according to the statement and the districts therein determined, until a redistricting and reapportionment are thereafter made by the General Assembly as provided in this amendment. If however, the statement is not filed within four months after the commission is appointed, it shall stand discharged. Thereupon, all senators, scheduled for election at the next election for state senators, and all state representatives shall be nominated and elected at the next election from the state at large. Following such an election at large, the General Assembly at its next regular session shall perform the duties specified in this amendment. But if such a General Assembly fails to perform these duties, then another commission, as specified in this Section 8, shall be appointed in like manner, with like duties, and power, and with like effect; and so forth until a valid senatorial and representative redistricting and reapportionment are secured in this 1950 decade and each decade thereafter. But there can be only one valid senatorial and representative redistricting and reapportionment during a particular decade.

Schedule

While this amendment of Sections 6, 7 and 8 of Article IV, if adopted shall be effective upon its adoption, nevertheless the General Assembly meeting in 1955 or 1956 shall consist of fifty-one senators and one hundred and fifty-three representatives as provided in Sections 6, 7 and 8 of Article IV of the 1870 constitution of Illinois before the adoption of this amendment.

If the 1955 General Assembly in its regular session redistricts and reapportions, as required, or if upon its failure the commission does so, then those senators, who are still residents in odd numbered districts and who were elected in 1954, will retain their offices until the expiration of their terms. But in those odd numbered districts, as created in 1955, where no senator elected in 1954 has been a resident for one year next preceding the election in 1956, a vacancy in the office of senator for such districts exists. Likewise, a vacancy exists in the office of senator in such odd numbered districts where two or more senators elected in 1954 are residents of the district. In either case, a senator in such an odd numbered district shall be elected in 1956 for a term expiring in 1958. The main purpose of this schedule is to provide for a senate with a full quota of members in 1957-1958.

Any senator elected in 1954, who is eliminated from his office by the redistricting, and who is not reelected in 1956 for the two year term, shall be paid the salary for 1957-1958, that he would have received if he had been able to serve the full term of his office and shall receive such other benefits as would have accrued if he had served such term.

Form of Ballot

The proposed amendment to Article IV will appear upon the constitution ballot in the following form:

PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO SECTIONS 6, 7 AND 8 OF ARTICLE IV
(Legislative Apportionment ammendment)

Explanation of Amendment

This amendment would direct the General Assembly to redistrict the State for the purpose of electing one Senator from each of 58 senatorial districts and three Representatives from each of 59 representative districts.

As concerns the Senate, area would be the "prime consideration" in the formation of the 58 districts. Downstate would be entitled to 34 districts and Cook county to 24 districts, 18 of them in Chicago and six in the county outside Chicago.

As concerns the House of Representatives, the 59 districts would be based upon equal population as nearly as practical, except that in the redistricting prior to the 1960 census, downstate would be entitled to 29 districts and Cook county to 30 districts, 23 of them in Chicago and seven in the county outside Chicago. The three Representatives from each district would be elected by cumulative voting, as at present.

Should the General Assembly fail to redistrict as directed, this duty would fall on a commission appointed by the Governor. The State central committies of the two major parties would each submit a list of 10 nominees to the Governor, who would appoint five from each list, making a 10 member commission. Should the commission fail to redistrict, Senators coming up at the next election and all Representatives would be elected from the State at large. If the resulting General Assembly still fail to redistrict, a new comission would be appointed, as before, and should this second commission fail to redistrict, legislators would again be elected at large—and so forth until a valid redistricting is secured.

	YES
	NO

For the proposed amendment to Sections 6, 7, and 8 of article IV of the Constitution. (Legislative Apportionment.).

STATE TREASURER
AMENDMENT

PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO SECTIONS 1, 2 AND 3 of ARTICLE V
Article V

Section 1. The executive department shall consist of a governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, auditor of public accounts, treasurer, superintendent of public instruction and attorney general, who shall each hold his office for the term of four years from the second Monday of January next after his election and until his successor is elected and qualified. They shall, except the lieutenant governor, reside at the seat of government during their term of office and keep the public records, books and papers there, and shall perform such duties as may be prescribed by law.

Section 2. The treasurer shall hold his office for the term of four years, and until his successor is elected and qualified, and shall be ineligible to said office for four years next after the end of the term for which he was elected. He may be required by the governor to give reasonable additional security, and in default of so doing his office shall be deemed vacant.

Section 3. Urges Drainage Regulations On Subdivision Roads

Establishment of road surfacing and drainage regulations which would apply to proposed subdivisions in unincorporated areas was requested recently by William J. Mortimer, superintendent of the county highway department.

The county board of commissioners assigned the job of drafting the regulations to a subcommittee headed by Commissioner John J. Duffy, who said his group was also asked to consolidate the new rules with existing requirements on plats, dedications, vacations, zoning, and health.

The rapid development of building in unincorporated areas has resulted in a number of complaints from home owners harassed by highway and drainage problems.

The county now has no regulations for road surfacing or drainage for surface water, and thus many subdividers build stone and gravel roads which become mudholes by the time the subdivision is completed.

Earlier attempts by the county to ask for minimum road and drainage requirements were precluded by a lack of enabling state legislation. Enabling law was sought unsuccessfully in 1951 by the late Robert Kingery, former chairman of the county zoning board of appeals. The legislation was enacted last year.
